No. Rc. 2016B1/47 dated 15th March 1948.

Sir,

*Sub:--Elementary Education--Compulsory Education Scheme--Extension during 1947-48--Subsidy to local Bodies for during 1947-48-- Payment of advance-- Requesting..

In H.O. No. 423 Edn. dated 6.3.47 Government were pleased to sanction the payment of advance subsidies to District Board for expenditure on the scheme of compulsory Education in the areas of 1946-47. I now recommend the payment of a similar advance to the District Boards for meeting the recurring scheme in respect of the 1947-48 areas as detailed in the annexure.

2. The particulars pertaining to the District Boards Rannad and Malabar have not yet been received. However Rs. 10,000/- and Rs. 30,000/- respectively are recommended as subsidies to these two district boards on the basis of the number of pupils.

3. Since compulsion in the 1947-48 areas of Cuddappah and Anantapur Districts was introduced only of late (viz 25.2.48 and 1.3.48) there is no need for any provision in respect of these District Boards. As the proposals for the introduction of compulsory Education in Salem District in the 1947-48 areas have also not yet been approved by Government, there is no likelihood of any expenditure during the current year.

4. Recommendations for the payment of non-recurring subsidies will be made separately as and when claims are made by the District Boards, with reference to para 2 of G.O. No. 1224 Edn. dated 11.8.45
