University - Madras - Sanskrit manuscript - Eggeling Sanskrit Catalogue No.3947.- Loan of.

C.No.73797/47.P

From the Registrar, University of Madras, No.A.4486 dated 15.9.47.

Please see the letter from the Registrar, University of Madras on p.1 c.f. He requests that the manuscript known as "Eggeling's Sanskrit Catalogue No.3947" may be obtained from the India Office Library, London, on loan for a period of six months. Hitherto, it was customary to address the Librarian, India Office, direct, and get the required manuscripts. But ~~with~~ the position has changed with the passing of the Indian Independence Bill, from 15th August 1947. According to the instructions contained in G.O.No.Ms.2706 (Political) dated 29-8-47, all correspondence with the United Kingdom should be undertaken by the External Affairs and Commonwealth Relations of the Govt. of India, through the High Commissioner for India, ~~as the India Office ceased to exist~~. It is however provided in the above G.O. that ~~there is no objection to~~ Provincial Governments ^{may} corresponding direct with the High Commissioner for India in the United Kingdom to the limited extent hitherto followed by them. In the circumstances, it is ~~for~~ orders whether in the case under reference, viz. the obtaining on loan the manuscript required by the Madras University, the High Commissioner for India in the U.K. may be addressed ^{direct} through the Govt. of India, ~~or through~~ direct, or whether the Govt. of India themselves may be addressed to ~~make~~ make necessary arrangements for the loan of the manuscript. Public ~~(Political)~~ (Political) may see for remarks.

This is a routine matter
there seems to be no objection to continue the existing practice
of addressing direct. ⁴⁷
