OFFICE OF THE

The Secretary to Government,
Education and Public Health Department,

Sir,

Sub:WAR - Educational concessions to young wives and widows
of soldiers - Training as teachers.
REF: G.O.No.P.732 Education dated 31--3--1948. (P)

(K) In G.O.No.MS.1182 Education dated 15-6-1946 and 1241 Edn. dated 17-5-48
ment were pleased approve my proposal that certain educational concessions should be given to the Young wives and widows of soldiers who take up the teacher's training.course.

(B) 2. The Government however directed in G.O.No.P.732 Education dated 31-3-1948 that the concessions should be granted to the wives of only those who had got married on or before 28-2-47.
These orders were actually issued by the Government at the end of March 1948. Before the receipt of these orders the concessions were allowed in certain cases where the soldier got - married subsequent to 28/2/47. The question has been raised - whether the concessions may be renewed to the pupil in such cases. I recommend that in such cases the concessions may be renewed as the students has already begun to study and should not be put to hardships.in the middle of their training. Only one case has come to notice so far.

3. I request the favour of very early orders.

Yours faithfully,

MMX

Para 1, p1 (W)

p 3 CF

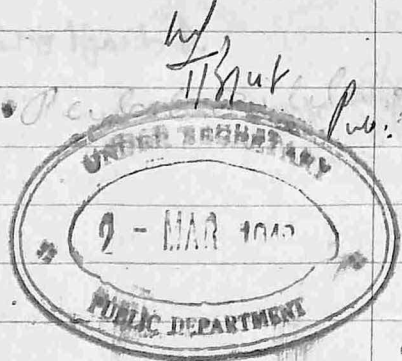

Wives of soliders, among others, are eligible for the educational concessions specified in the Appendix to G.O. 510-Edn., d/- 20-4-45. The point raised by the D.P.I. in the letter is whether a soldier who gets married after his discharge from the Defence Service can claim the concessions for his wife who is a student. This point has not been raised before. Accg. to a strict interpretation of the orders, it seems that the soldier should have married before his discharge from the Army (i.e., before he <sup>be</sup> comes a 'civilian') to entitle his wife for the concessions.

Attention is, in this connection, invited to the notes with G.O. 120-Edn., dated 17-1-46. With a view to limiting the liability on account of the concessions, the Govt. decided in that G.O. that the concessions shd. be ~~to~~ award only to children and dependants born on or before the 28th Feby. 1947. On the analogy of that decision, the concession in this case may be granted if the soldier had got married on or before 28-2-47. For orders whether the D.P.I. may be informed accordingly.
