(a) how many colleges for girls are there in this Province;
(b) how many of these are under Government; and how many are under Christian Mission management;

(c) whether there are any proposals to open new colleges next year; and

(d) what is the grant given to these Mission colleges?

THE HON. SRI T. S. AVINASHILINGAM CHETTIYAR:—

“(b) Three arts colleges and one professional college are under Government management. Five arts colleges and four professional colleges are under Christian Mission management.

[12th December 1947]

“(c) The Government have no proposals to open any college themselves next year. There is a proposal to open a college for women with the endowment created by Dr. V. L. Ethiraj.

“(d) The information is given in a statement^a appended hereto.”

SRI A. VEDARATNAM PILLAI:—“Will the Hon. Minister be pleased to state whether the Government will consider to give more grants to girls' colleges to liquidate illiteracy amongst women?”

THE HON. SRI T. S. AVINASHILINGAM CHETTIYAR:—

“Even now women's colleges are getting certain privileges which men's colleges are not getting. For instance, women's colleges are getting building grants and equipment grants which are not given to men's colleges.”

BEGUM SULTAN MIR AMIRUDDIN:—“In view of the paucity of women's colleges to cater to the demand for their higher education, will the Hon. Minister give me an assurance that he will not abolish or reduce the status of any women's college but will on the other hand afford greater facilities for women's higher education?”

THE HON. SRI T. S. AVINASHILINGAM CHETTIYAR:—

“I am afraid that no such assurance can be given; but it may be pointed out that in almost all men's colleges there are women students also studying.”

DR. S. SUBRAHMANYA AYYAR:—“Can the Government explain why there should be such great disparity in the teaching grant given to the Women's Christian College and the other colleges? Is it because the Women's Christian College has got a larger number of students than the other colleges?”

THE HON. SRI T. S. AVINASHILINGAM CHETTIYAR:—

“No, Sir. It depends upon the subjects that are being maintained in each college and the number of students in each college.”

DR. S. SUBRAHMANYA AYYAR:—“Does it not appear to the Government that the teaching grant given to the Women's Christian College is absolutely disproportionate when compared with other colleges?”

THE HON. SRI T. S. AVINASHILINGAM CHETTIYAR:—

“The matter is not probably understood, Sir. When a college provides for all subjects and for Honours courses, the cost of maintenance will be much greater and if there is not a full complement of students in those courses then the grants will be greater, because half the net cost is borne by the Government.”

12th December 1947]

BEGUM SULTAN MIR AMIRUDDIN :—“ Is the Hon. Minister aware that the Commission appointed by the University to inspect the colleges has recommended that more women's colleges should be established so that women may not flock to then men's colleges? ”

THE HON. SRI T. S. AVINASHILINGAM CHETTIYAR :—

“ It is true, Sir, that there are many things which are recommended by the University and which the Government are anxious to do, but which they are unable to do on account of financial considerations.”

MOHAMED ABDUL SALAM SAHIB BAHADUR :—“ Is it because that there is no Woman Minister in the Cabinet that this Government is turning a deaf year to women's progress? ”

THE HON. SRI T. S. AVINASHILINGAM CHETTIYAR :—

“ I think, Mr. Salam makes up for the want of a Woman Minister, Sir.”

BEGUM SULTAN MIR AMIRUDDIN :—“ May I know whether the Government has taken any steps to provide a building for the college which Mr. V. L. Ethiraj intends to start for women? ”

THE HON. SRI T. S. AVINASHILINGAM CHETTIYAR :—

“ That is under consideration.”

B. POCKER SAHIB BAHADUR :—“ May I know what is the policy of the Government as regards women's higher education, whether it is to allow women to go to the men's college or as far as possible to provide separate institutions for women? ”

THE HON. SRI T. S. AVINASHILINGAM CHETTIYAR :—

“ As far as possible, Sir, the Government is providing separate women's colleges. But it is not always possible to provide women's colleges in every place.”

SRI P. GOVINDA MENON :—“ May I know from the Hon. Minister whether there is any proposal before the Government to start a women's college in Malabar? ”

THE HON. SRI T. S. AVINASHILINGAM CHETTIYAR :—

“ There is no proposal before the Government to start a women's college in Malabar.”

MOHAMED ABDUL SALAM SAHIB BAHADUR :—“ The question of Mr. Pocker was not, Sir, about separate institutions. The question was whether the Government are going to have the same sort of education for both boys and girls or whether a separate sort of education would be given for women in the future? ”

THE HON. SRI T. S. AVINASHILINGAM CHETTIYAR :—

“ Under the reorganization of secondary education, Sir, in the high schools the Government is trying to make a differentiation between the education given to the boys and the girls. In the matter of the colleges, it is one which rests with the universities and I am sure that the universities will provide Home Science and such other subjects in the women's colleges.”

[12th December 1947]

SRI A. VEDARATNAM PILLAI:—“Will the Hon. Minister be pleased to state whether he will make arrangements to stop the spreading of Christian culture in Mission institutions?”

MR. SPEAKER:—“The hon. Member may put a separate question.”

SRI V. RAGHAVAYYA:—“May I know what steps the Government have taken to prevent proselytization in the Christian Missionary-managed schools and colleges?”

THE HON. SRI T. S. AVINASHILINGAM CHETTIYAR:—
“Orders have been issued that in colleges and schools proselytization should not be done by the staff and the buildings of the schools and colleges should not be used for proselytization.”

SRI P. NATESAN:—“May I know if it is the intention of the Hon. Minister to encourage separate colleges for men and women?”

THE HON. SRI T. S. AVINASHILINGAM CHETTIYAR:—
“It is necessary in some respects to have separate colleges.”

SRI P. NATESAN:—“When ladies want all sorts of freedom and equality with men, where is the need for them to ask for independent colleges and thus waste Government funds by having two separate colleges?”

THE HON. SRI T. S. AVINASHILINGAM CHETTIYAR:—
“I should like the hon. Member to have a talk over this with the hon. Lady Member behind him and come to some conclusion.” (Laughter.)

BEGUM SULTAN MIR AMIRUDDIN:—“In view of the fact that the question of providing a building for the college to be started by Mr. Ethiraj has been pending for a long time, may I know how much longer time the Government intend to take over this matter?”

THE HON. SRI T. S. AVINASHILINGAM CHETTIYAR:—
“The matter is under consideration, Sir.”
