Re. No. 729 K3/47, dated 19-3-1948. 19

Sir,

* Lady Willingdon Training College, Madras - Secondary Training Section - Posts of L.T.Assistant - Sanction requested.

I have the honour to state that in the Lady Willingdon Training College, Madras there are two permanent secondary Training Sections - one Senior and one Junior. The two posts of L.T.Assistant sanctioned for the two sections were converted into two posts of Assistant Lecturers in G.O.No.702 Edn., dated 1-4-46. During the school year 1946-47 there were two sections in the Secondary Grade Training Department and I sanctioned the employment of two L.T.Assistants on fixed pay. During the year 1947-48, I sanctioned the employment of one L.T.Assistant for the Junior Secondary Section since there was no senior section. During the school year 1948-49 the students admitted in the Junior section in 1947-48 will be in the Senior Section and fresh admissions have to be made in the Junior Section. Hence for the two sections two L.T.Assistants are required. The Principal requests that the posts may be sanctioned on time-scale of pay. Therefore request that Government may be pleased to sanction the continuance of the post of L.T.Assistant sanctioned by me during the school-year 1947-48 on time scale of pay for a period of two years from the school year 1948-49 and also sanction the employment for a similar period of an additional L.T.Assistant (for the junior section).

I request the favour of early orders.
