From A. V. Nagaraja Sarma - 85 -
Lecturer in Sanskrit
Doctor Klagappa Chettian College
Karaiikudi. (Ramanath District)

To The Secretary for Education
Government of Madras.

Respected Sir,

94386

I beg your kind leave to bring the following facts to your kind notice and pray for favourable orders.

While I was in service in the Sanskrit department of the Annamalai University, I was appointed under Rule 9(a) i of the Provincial and Subordinate Services Rules to officiate as Assistant Lecturer in Sanskrit in the Government Arts College, Coimbatore. I joined the latter institution on 13th August 1946.

Later in the Academic year General proceedings (evidently intended to apply to persons specifically appointed till the end of the academic year) were passed by the Director of Public Instruction that persons appointed under Emergency Powers were entitled to vacation salary in proportion to their service during the academic year.

No mention regarding the period of my appointment had been made in my appointment order. If the above mentioned General proceedings of the Director applied to me also, the period of proportionate vacation to which I was eligible ended with 31st May 1947, and I ought to have been relieved from duty on 31st May afternoon or 1st June '47 forenoon.

The fact that I was not so relieved clearly shows that I must be deemed to continue in service and therefore I am entitled to draw my salary till the actual date of my relief.

Further, on the reopening of the College I was permitted to carry on my work in the institution. On 27th June 1947, Proceedings of the Director of Public Instruction, Madras (R.C. No 8319 - C 3/46 & 25-6-1947) were received to the effect that the Sanskrit Pandit, Govt. College, Coimbatore, was to officiate as Assistant Lecturer "with effect from the reopening of the College, vice Sri A.V. Nagarajan". These proceedings make it abundantly clear that I must be deemed to be in service till the reopening of the College viz. 20-6-1947. But as the orders were received only on 27-6-47, I was relieved on 27th June in the afternoon.

As such I am entitled to my salary for the whole period 1-6-47 to 27-6-47, both days included. From the fact that I was not relieved on 1st June '47 and that I was permitted to carry on my duties as Assistant Lecturer without fresh order of appointment, there can be absolutely no doubt regarding my eligibility for pay for the said period.

But the principal, Govt. Arts College, Coimbatore has drawn and remitted to me my salary only for the period 20-6-47 to 27-6-47, leaving the period prior to the reopening of the

I humbly pray that my salary for the period 1-6-1947 to 19-6-47 for which I am entitled under the above circumstances and which I have not received may graciously be directed to be paid to me at an early date, for which act of justice and grace I shall ever be grateful.

I beg to remain

Resubmitted.

2. Sri A.V.Nagaraja Sarma was appointed as Assistant Lecturer in Sanskrit, Government College, Coimbatore on 13.8.1946 under emergency powers. The College was closed for summer vacation from 20.3.1947 to 19.6.1947. On the analogy of the orders issued in G.O.No.40-Education dated 10.1.1947 regarding the payment of vacation salary to persons appointed under the emergency powers Sri A.V.Nagaraja Sarma was paid proportionate vacation salary upto 31.5.1947 to which he became eligible. With effect from the date of reopening of the college Sri A.V.Nagaraja Sarma was ordered to be ousted but due to the late receipt of these orders in the college he was actually relieved on 27.6.1947. He was therefore paid the salary due to him from 20.6.1947 to 27.6.1947 also. In these circumstances the request of the petitioner for vacation salary from 1.6.1947 to 19.6.1947 is inadmissible.

Honoured Sir,

Ref:- Petition of A.V. Nagaraja Sarma of 29-11-47
- Pay for period 1st to 19th June 1947 (both days included)
- Government Arts College - Coimbatore.

13332 ✓ I beg your kind leave to place before you the following facts for your kind and gracious notice and favourable orders.

While I was in service in Annamalai University in 1946, I was appointed under Rule 9(a) i to officiate as Assistant Lecturer in Sanskrit in the Government Arts College Coimbatore by the Director of Public Instruction, no mention being made of the period of appointment. The place of Assistant Lecturer in Sanskrit in the Govt. Arts College, Coimbatore, was sanctioned for two years in the first instance from 1st July 1946. I joined duty in that institution on 13th August 1946.

Later in the academic year, general proceedings were passed by the Director of Public Instruction that persons appointed under 9(a) i were eligible for proportionate vacation salary. Evidently it was intended to apply only to persons employed till the end of the academic year, so that they might have proportional benefit of the vacation, as otherwise their services would be terminated by the closing of the institution for summer.

As the place of Assistant Lecturer in Sanskrit in that institution had been already sanctioned for two years, there was no question of my services being terminated by the end of the academic year. As a matter of fact there was no instruction for my relief. I carried on my work uninterrupted.

On 27th June 1947, orders were received that Mr. J. K. Ramachandra Iyer was to officiate as Asst. Lecturer in Sanskrit 'Vice Sri A.V. Nagaraja Sarma, from the reopening of the college, i.e. 20th June 1947'. Consequently I was relieved on 27th June 1947, in the afternoon.

As I had not, prior to that date, been relieved from duty in that institution, it is quite clear that I must be deemed to be in actual service till the date of my relief viz 27-6-47. and I am hence eligible for full pay upto 27-6-47.

But I have been paid only for the period ending 31st May 1947 and for the period 20th to 27th June. My salary for the period 1st June to 19th June 47 (both days included) has not been paid to me.

I humbly pray that the amount so due to me (~~the amount~~) may kindly be ordered to be paid to me at an early date.

Thanking you,

Karai Kudi }

Amount of vacation salary - Sri A.V. Nagaraja Sarana, formerly Asst. Lecturer, Govt College, Coimbatore - Petition for

Please see the petition on pp 1-2 and 4 CF
from Sri A.V. Nagaraja Sarana, formerly Asst. Lecturer in Sanskrit, Govt College Coimbatore and the Remarks of the D.P.J. thereon on p 3 CF.

2 It is seen that the petitioner was appointed as Asst. Lecturer in Sanskrit in Govt College Coimbatore on 13.8.46 under emergency powers and he was relieved w.e.f 27.6.47.
He was ~~therefore~~ in service during the vacation
period of the College i.e. from 20.3.47 to 19.6.47.
It therefore appears that he should have been paid full salary for the vacation period as he continued to be in service even after the reopening of the College, instead of having been granted proportionate vacation salary upto 31.5.47. With reference to the Remarks of the D.P.J. at H on p 3 CF, it is submitted that it will not be correct to apply in this case the analogy of orders issued in Gono 40 Bdu. d 10.1.47. From that G.O. it is seen that Sri T.V.
Natarajan was actually ousted from service
on the day of closing of the College for Summer vacation and therefore he was paid a proportionate vacation salary in consideration of his service of about 8 months in that College. B.
In the case of the petitioner, he was retained in service during the Summer vacation and also he continued to be in service even after the reopening of the College for a few days
owing to the late receipt of the proceedings.

 request that he should be paid full deputation salary is quite legitimate. Attention is in this
