AN INDO-BRITISH GOODWILL AND CULTURAL MISSION TO INDIA

The Mission is being organised on the initiative of the Indian Cultural Unity Movement, in co-operation with the Vedanta Society, the Society for Cultural Fellowship with India, the League for the Federation of Mankind, and the International Animal Service.

The objects of the Mission are:

(1) To interchange ideas and views with distinguished Indians in order to facilitate friendly contact with India at a time when she is regaining her cultural and political freedom, and to present to the Indian public the ideals and principles upheld by the Organisations forming the Mission.

(2) To gain first-hand experience of the great cultures extant in India, and to study their mutual relations and their contributions towards the evolution of a cultural federation of mankind.

(3) To strengthen the relationship of cultural give and take between Indians in Britain and Indians in India.

(4) To help establish a cultural understanding between India and Britain through close association with the spiritual, cultural, social and political groups and societies in India.

The Mission is going to India with a sincere feeling of comradeship and respect for the Indian people, and it is shouldering a heavy financial responsibility for the sake of an ideal. It is hoped that the members of the Mission, after their return from India, will arrange an all-Britain tour in order to share their Indian experiences with the people of this country and to create thereby a cultural bridge between India and Britain.

The Mission will be led by Swami Avyaktananda (founder of the Vedanta Movement in Britain, and president of the Indian Cultural Unity Movement) and will consist of Vyvyen Jenkins (president, the Society for Cultural Fellowship with India), Dr. D. N. Dutt (member, the Indian Cultural Unity Movement).

Robert Horniman (member, the Vedanta Society), Margaret Flinn (assistant secretary, the League for the Federation of Mankind), Rev. W. M. Andrew (member, the League for the Federation of Mankind), and M. Van Sprang (president, the International Animal Service).

5 The Mission hopes to arrive in India by September, 1947, and to stay for about six months, visiting all important cities, some towns and a number of villages, so as to come in touch with all sections of the people. In order to feel at one with the ordinary people, the members will follow a simple mode of living in all possible ways.

6 The members of the Mission will be pleased to accept the hospitality of friendly people in order to come into intimate association with Indian family life. They will value the assistance and co-operation of like-minded people in achieving the objects of the Mission, through fellowship dinners based on vegetarianism (acceptable to all Communities), informal tea parties, interviews with people of note, public meetings, conferences and visits to temples, mosques, churches, centres of spiritual significance and places of historical and cultural importance. They will highly appreciate the initiative of individuals and societies in organising, on behalf of the Mission, any of the above-mentioned activities.

7 It will be a great help to the organisers of the Mission, if Indians residing in Britain and English friends having connections in India will put them in touch with people likely to be interested in the cause. The Mission is earnestly seeking the moral support of cultural India and the help of the Indian people in every concrete way.

8 Those who are in sympathy with the Mission and willing to help financially or otherwise are requested to communicate with Vyvyan Jenkins and Radha Rani Borkar, joint secretaries, the Indo-British Goodwill and Cultural Mission to India, 51 Lancaster Gate, London, W.2.

I am to acknowledge the receipt of the above letter and to state that the Ramakrishna Mission, Madras will be exceedingly glad to contact the Cultural Mission during its stay in Madras and help it as far as possible to appreciate the Cultural side of South India. The President of the Madras Branch of the Mission had already received a letter from the Secretary of the Cultural Mission Mr. Vyvyen Jenkins about the help needed during their visit to Madras. A reply was sent to him on the 25th February, and a list of individuals and societies in Southern India likely to appreciate the purposes of the Mission was also sent to him. I might mention that the leader of the Mission is Swami Avyakthananda, a Member of the Ramakrishna Order and Founder of the Vedanta Movement in Britain.

As regards the details of the programme we will be prepared to arrange for a meeting for the Members of the Mission to address or hold a Conversation for a free talk and take them round to visit the various Institutions of the Mission in Madras. We will co-operate with other gentlemen interested in the cause in settling the programme and the events to be arranged for in connection with the Mission's visit. I think there will be a General Meeting of these friends at which the programme and events will be determined. We will be happy to take part in it and carry out with pleasure any event that may be assigned to us.

Dear Sir,

With regard to your letter of 8th July referring to the visit of the Indo-British Goodwill and Cultural Mission to India in September, I would refer you to the enclosure, which is a letter from the President of our Society, Mr. C. Jinarajadasa and which is self-explanatory as to his extension of hospitality to the Mission when they come to Madras. As you see the President says that we will not be able to give accommodation on the estate, but we will be pleased to show them around the grounds on whatever date they come.

Would you also like us to arrange for the Mission to contact Kalakshetra, Art Centre, which is located on our estate at the present time and it may be of interest from the cultural point of view. If you would like to contact directly the Kalakshetra Art Centre and the Besant Theosophical School, would you please write to the Director, Srimati Rukmini Devi, c/o The Theosophical Society, Adyar, Madras 20. I am sure that she will be pleased to be of assistance.

If you would let us know more definitely the date of the arrival of the mission we can make arrangements for further details when we see the length of time at their disposal in Madras.

The Mission will be well-advised instead of spending six months in the country with the disturbed railway and other communications, to spend six weeks first in the Madras and Chingleput Districts, which contain Andhra, Tamil and Kanarese and Malayalam areas and conditions and are a microcosmic picture of the whole Madras Presidency. The Institutions in Madras, I leave it to the Collector of Madras and the Secretariat to name though I could do the same.

There are many institutions etc., in this district which the Good Will Mission could visit, but as I presume their time will be very short, I am suggesting the following as the most important and interesting from their point of view:-

- (1) Pattagar's Farm, Palayakottai, Erode taluk
- (2) All India Spinners' Association Headquarters at Tiruppur
- (3) Perundurai Sanatorium (Erode taluk), (an excellently run institution with Government aid.)
- (4) Sri Ramakrishna Vidyalaya, Perianayakanpalaiyam, (Coimbatore taluk.)
- (5) The Agricultural and Forest Colleges at Coimbatore
- (6) the numerous mills in Coimbatore

In addition, there are several temples of historic and religious interest, the most important of them being that at Perur, 4 miles from Coimbatore.

It depends on which place the Mission decides to visit as to which gentlemen they could meet.

I anticipate no trouble as regards accommodating them, and there are many public gentlemen in this district whose names I can give you when I know the exact programme of the Mission.

The ruins of Hampi are worth a visit by the Mission. I cannot do better than furnishing you with a copy of an article from the Rajahmundry Historical Research society's Vizianagar Day Commemoration volume, which gives an idea of the past glory of the Hampi Kshetra. Two card size photos of the existing architecture are also sent herewith. I am also sending a copy of the pictures of Chalukyan Architecture still existing in this district. If the cultural mission likes to see them all it will take about a week. But if the mission likes to confine itself to Hampi Ruins I think about 4 days will be sufficient. There is a P.W.D.Travellers' Bungalow at Kamalapur which is seven miles from Hospet, the Head Quarters of a Taluk connected by road. During the stay of the mission in this district I shall be happy to make every possible arrangement for their food etc. Sri A.K.Balasundaram, District Board Educational Officer, Bellary; Sri M.Chayappa, Principal of the Veerasaiva College, Bellary; and Sri Rallabanda Subba Rao of the Andhra Historical Research Society, Rajahmundry are persons of note who can be interviewed by the Mission. I shall try to get Mr.R.Subba Rao of Rajahmundry here when the Mission's visit is definitely made known. I wish that the mission will have very comfortable stay here. Perhaps I may say by way of suggestion that the Andhra Historical Society Rajahmundry can give the cultural mission an idea of all places of cultural importance in the Andhradesa.

The visitor to the Ruins is struck at the very entrance with a gloom, that seems to hover over the entire area. The term 'RUINS' applies only to the mortal remains of the Empire City. Even these by their sheer association, with things supernatural seem to be living as ever pulsating with life to those who can see through them. It is not mere sentiment that sees things transcendental in these Ruins. This is the land thrice blessed. Nature and art, epic and history have combined to confer on this chosen 'Punya Kshetra' a peculiar sanctity that hedges divinity itself.

Where the mighty Krishna Devaraya held Court in all the pomp and glory of his greatness and his lovely Queens lightly tread in all the grace and grandeur of their beauty, monkeys hold durbars, squirrels dart about and snakes leisurely bask in the sun.

After an interval of FIVE ~~XXXX~~ MORE YEARS in 1946, the need was felt for a permanent organisation under the management of an influential, representative Committee to afford necessary facilities and enlightenment to the visitors to Hampi to study the history, art, architecture and sculpture of Vijayanagar Period and to co-ordinate the educational, aesthetic, economic and social work done by other associations under the name of 'VIJAYANAGARA, VIDYARANYA OR RAYALASEEMA ~~XXXX~~ ORGANISATIONS'.

IN HEMAKUTA ZASHRAMA there is a fine library with the necessary books on 'Vijayanagar', large scale maps.

the Samiti, a gesture to do which Society of Hampi irrevocably the 13th October 1946 amidst Vijayanagar Empire Day was celebrated at Hampi under the auspices of the Anjammundry Andhra Historical Research Society (A.H.R.S.)

There was a large gathering of delegates and visitors.
General President of the Conference, Prof. I. K. Ramamurthy, brought him a batch of 40 post graduate students from his Wilson College, who entertained the audience with sports and dances at Hampi Bazaar, then (the 13th Oct. 46). The other delegates included the members of Anjammundry Ganga Kala Parishad and Andhra Vidya Pitam and a of Madras University Research students.

Then a batch of about a hundred Kannada youths from Bellary and Kottur, as a protest, organized a sort of counter conference in the same First Court-yard of Virupaksha Temple, the avenue of the Historical Conference under reference. But when they were convinced that the Andhra Historical Conference was purely cultural and that had no linguistic or political objective, they participated in the proceedings of the Conference. At a later stage Sri. J. S. Aruldas, leader of Kannada youth organization, expressed the hope that the Andhra, Karnataka unity formed at the celebration would be strengthened in future. The renowned Kannada poet and actor, Sri. J. S. Aruldas, Gowd in melodious tone sang the songs of the splendour of Vijayanagar Empire.

After the Rajah of Anantapur and Rydi Lakshmyya, President of Anantapur District Board, welcomed the guests, Sri. K. K. Anantaraman, I.C.S., District Collector, Bellary, declared the Historical Conference open and Sri. K. K. Anantaraman, I.C.S., delivered his presidential address.

The same 13th October 1946 evening, the Historical Research Exh-bition comprising of old coins in lead and gold, metal plates and caskets, copies of inscriptions etc., was opened at Hampi by Sri. K. K.
Anantaraman, I.C.S., who expressed the hope that the seed of good will and peace thus sown here would bear ample fruit in days to come and several such historical research societies would be springing up all over the land.

The next day the conference of the Literary Section was held. I.
President, Dr. Chilukur Narayana Rao, Retired Professor of Languages, Anantapur said:- "The out-pur of literature both in Telugu and Kannunder the Vijayanagar Emperor were huge, vast and varied. It is high time an earnest effort was made at least now to preserve and conserve that literature, which is fast passing into oblivion etc." He then announced that he would donate his personal collections of inscriptions (2000 palm-leaf manuscripts), coins, and copper plates to the Andhra Historical Research Society, the Secretary of which, Sri. K. S. Aruldas, -ba Rao accepted the gift to form an Oriental Manuscripts Library in name of the generous donor.

The same day the Historical & Music Conferences met under the presidency of Dr. P. Sreenivasan, Principal, J. R. A. and C. V. R. Col-lege, Bezavada and Sri. M. Chayappa, Principal of Veerasaiva College, Bel-
-lary respectively at Hampi.

The Third Day of the Conference, i.e., the 15th October 46 set apart for the visit of Hampi ruins by different batches.

To mark this Historical Occasion, the Anjammundry A.H.R.S. Soc-has undertaken to publish in Telugu a costly Commemorative Volume en-ed 'VIJAYANAGAR SAICHIKA'. In addition to this, the Society's Historical Journal will give in English a full account of the Vijayanagar Empire Day & Celebration and that of the Conferences of Historical Literary, Music and Fine Arts Sections held at Hampi with grand scale for three days from the 13th to 15th October 1946.

The Vidyanaraya Vignana Samiti is doing a great service to cause of historical research in Vijayanagar period at Hampi Bazaar -self through its Library and Art Museum. Every year it keeps up the memory of the busy hum of Vijayanagar Bazaar by celebrating its anversary just before the Day of Hampi Car Festival.

of April for thousands of people to assemble. The Bazaar, which almost desolate for the most part of the year, best with life. Then the Bazaar re-peopled teems with activity for about a week and gives us a faint idea of what it should have been in the palmy days as an Imperial Capital.

OF THE GLORY & GRANDEUR OF THE VIJAYANAGAR EMPIRE or Never to be Forgotten Hampi Ruins, as a relic of the magnificent Hindu Empire of South India in Medieval Times in Pictures.)

INTRODUCTION

For about ten generations in the medieval times, i.e., from 1336 to 1672, the history of Vijayanagar deals with the history of South India. There are more authentic sources for Vijayanagar History from such European visitors to the Imperial City of Vijayanagar as Paea, Muniz & Nicolo Conti, from the Persian Ambassador, Abdur Razack, and from such Muslim writers as Ferishta and Tabataba. The historical knowledge derived on Vijayanagar History from such foreign sources are corrected, amplified and completed by copious indigenous materials, epigraphical & literary, in Sanskrit, Kanarese and Telugu.

ITS SOURCES

BATTLE OF TALIKOTA: ITS IMPORTANCE:

Nearly four centuries of history have rolled by since the fatal BATTLE OF TALIKOTA in Bijapur territory (or better known as RAK-KASI-TANGA (two villages to the south-west of Talikota), north of the river Krishna, in 1565 A.D., was fought. RAMA RAJA, the commander-in-chief, though 96 years of age, commanded the centre with the valour of a man of thirty, while his brothers, Tirumala and Venkatadri were in charge of the wings. The destruction was absolute. With the fall of Vijayanagar declined the sea-borne trade of the Portuguese. "The disaster which overtook the Empire should not cloud our imagination in our endeavour to appreciate the genuine attempts of the founders and their successors, who lived to work out a noble ideal, and to preserve with scrupulous care all that was great and good in the realm of Hindu thought and culture. Vijayanagara stood as the visible embodiment of the national resistance to save this enclave for the Hindus and keep it free from being over-run by the Muhammadans." (Dr. B. A. Saletore). This empire is indigenous and not grafted from outside like the Mughal empire. It has grown up in the soil of its origin. Hence it is an epitome of Hindu culture and civilisation.

The surviving princes of Vijayanagar fled taking with them 1550 elephants, laden with treasure in gold, diamonds, precious stones and the royal chair (i.e., the famous diamond throne). From that time forward for five months VIJAYANAGAR, former Imperial Capital, knew no rest. The victorious Muslims had come to destroy and they carried out their object relentlessly. They broke down temples and with the exception of a few great stone-built temples and walls, nothing now remains but a heap of ruins to mark the spot where the stately buildings stood. The visitor, who desires to have a vivid picture of Vijayanagar of those days, should peruse 'A FORGOTTEN EMPIRE' by Mr. Sewell, a former Collector of Bellary.

A VERY MEMO
 -RABLE ERA:

'The glories of the old Empire have vanished; but though fallen they are great and though no more, yet immortal.' This is an age memorable because the Vijayanagara monarchs, called the lords of the eastern, southern and western oceans, ('Purva-Paschima-Dakshina-Samudra-dipatyayeh') ruled from this one million populous Imperial Capital of 'VIDYA' noted for 'VIJAYA', (the ancient KRISHNA or PALPASHETRA) the haven of all the persecuted refugees, south of the Vindhya and the CENTRE for the preservation of the Hindu Society, its traditions, its ancient Dharma and Architecture, caused for two and half centuries of the medieval times to prostrate as feudatories all the kings, from the Krishna to Cape Comorin, (lands of Karnatakas and Temils), who assembled in large numbers at the Throne Platform or Dasara Dibba during the Nine nights' Festival to pay their annual tribute to the Emperor besides a pompous display of their forces.' (Cassan Frederick)

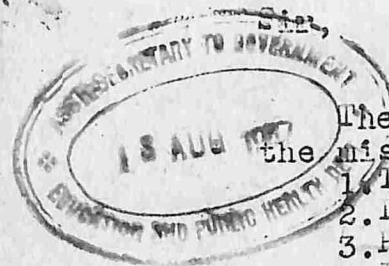

TIRUMALA, the surviving brother of Rama Raja, hastily returned to Vijayanagar and fled thence with the puppet king SADASIVA, to the fort of PENKONDA, 3000 feet high above the sea-level, in Anantapur (VIDE PICTURE I.). Penkonda was an important watch-tower guarding the Pennar River valley route to the south. In 1572 Tirumala deposed Sadasiva and seized the throne for himself. In 1585 A.D., VANKATA, third brother of Ramaraju, belonging to the Arevedu dynasty, was to fly to CHANDRAGIRI, in Chittoor District (Vide the Picture on the cover page.). The capital thus moved further south to Chandragiri, an important out-post in the Swarnamuki valley, before the final fall, indicating the steady decline of the Empire. The capital was removed to Vellore in North Arcot District, a magnificent

Copy of Jayankondam Tahsildar's D.Dis.No.3441-47 dated 19-8-47 to the Collector of Trichy.

Sub:-INDO BRITISH GOODWILL AND CULTURAL MISSION--Visit to India
Places of interest in Udayarpalayam Taluk-Report submitted-Ref:-Trichy Collector's Rc.CS.461-47 dated 26-7-47.

The Udayarpalayam Taluk lies in the north east corner of Trichinopoly District in between the Vellar on the north and the Coleroon on the south. Lands in this Taluk are mostly dry though of fair soil. Remote from cities and towns without large sources of irrigation means of transport and communication this taluk presents a backward appearance as regards literacy, culture, economic and social life. But all the same this taluk is worth visiting by the cultural mission on account of its past glory and rich ancient history. Taking the road from Trichinopoly Town to Kumbakonam (via.) Ariyalur, the party can visit Thirumalavadi, Melapalar, Kilapalar, Ariyalur, Kallankurichi, Udayarpalayam, Jayankondam, Ponneri tank, Garuvalapparkoil and Gangaikondacholapuram. A programme of tour preferably in pleasure cars, to all these places may occupy one week which period may be necessary to contact people to study their customs and manners and to gether historical information.

2. From the point of view antiquity and past glory Gangaikondapuram once called Gangaikondacholapuram should attract the foremost attention. History tells us that it was the seat and citadel of King Rengendrachola who founded it between 1025 and 1052, named it Gangaikondacholapuram in commemoration of his conquest of territories watered by the river Ganges and transferred his Capital to this from Tanjore. He also built the magnificent temple with its lofty pogramidal tower covered with numerous sculptures whose workmanship deserves interesting study. The walls of the shrine are made of stone slabs bearing inscriptions in a sort of Tamil letters called "Tamil script". It may require considerable effort to decipher them and make out their meaning. But a transcription of them with all possible diligence may give useful and interesting historical information. A sub-terranean tunnel is said to have connected this temple with the royal palace one mile off in the south-west. In this site of palace there are some mounds said to contain a ruined town which had stood round the royal palace. Foundations are visible after recent excavations.

At about half a mile to the west of Gangaikondapuram, lies the village of Garuvalapparkoil with a Vaishnavite temple. Recent excavations for Ponneri Channels unearthed mud pots containing copper coins pertaining to Tippu Sultan's period and French India.

Further west the Ponneri tank once in ruins but since restored in parts repair, is a relic of bygone greatness deserving visit by the mission. It is said that its embankment was 16 miles long and it was supplied by channels from the Vellar and the Coleroon. There is nothing historical at the town of Jayankondam which the head-quarters of the Taluk except two Jain or Budhish images with some tradition and superstition surrounding them.

The Town of Udayarpalayam five miles west of Jayankondam is the head-quarters of the Zamindar of Udayarpalayam. He is the decedent of the ancient poligars who held the palayam under the sovereignty of Vijayanagar Kings for policing the country. After very many vicissitudes the British power granted him 65 villages in and around Udayarpalayam as a Zamindari in 1817 and settled on upon. the last office holder for a nominal peshkash of Rs.642-15-4. At present this is the wealthiest Zamin in the district. The present Zamindar may be reckoned as one of the richest men in this district. But wise counsel should prevail upon him to take the initiative in philanthropic and humanitarian activities. The palace of the Zamindar at Udayarpalayam is a striking example of South Indian lay architecture in the 18th Century.

The ancient poligars of Ariyalur went through the vicissitudes as the poligars of Udayarpalayam. The British power settled settled on the last office holder 57 villages which were in later years put up for court sale. Eight of them were purchased by the Zamindar of Udayarpalayam and given as dowry to his daughter who had been given in marriage to late Zamindar of Ariyalur. The present Zamindar of Ariyalur holds these villages by virtue of this transaction. As spoken to by late Dr.Swaminatha Ayyar in his autobiography this Zamindar family was once famous for its patronage to Tamil literature and men of letters.

At a distance of not 3 miles to the east lies the modern pilgrim Centre, Kallankurichi. There is a big temple in it. At the time of annual festival there gather a huge concourse of people from all parts of this district and of surrounding Districts of Tanjore and South Arcot. This temple derives a large revenue from offerings on the festival days.

The union village of Kilapalar is at a distance of 8 miles to the south of Ariyalur on the road. It has a saivite temple endowed with the whole village.

At Melapalar, 2 miles west of Kilapalar there is a beautifully carved temple of antique design with sculptures in black stone. A number of inscriptions have been cut on the stone walls.

Twelve miles east of Pallambadi lies the village Thirumalavadi with a saivite temple bearing inscriptions on its walls.

Besides the above places of interest the village of Vikkiramangalam and Kamarasavalli which are in the interior and are connected by mud roads are worth visiting to see the temples therein.

The Deputy Tahsildar, Ariyalur may ~~contact~~ contact the temple authorities at Thirumalavadi, Kilapalar and Melapalar and the Zamindar of Ariyalur within his jurisdiction and make arrangements for reception and meetings, etc. I shall make arrangement at Udayarpalayam and Jayankondam which are within my jurisdiction. The villages of Garuvalapparkoil and Gangaikondapuram can be visited from Jayankondam one evening. The mission may halt for a day at Udayarpalayam and another day at Jayankondam and spare 5 days for visiting Ariyalur, Kallankurichi, Kilapalar, Melapalar and Thirumalavadi within the Deputy Tahsildar's Jurisdiction. On bearing further I shall make necessary arrangements in my jurisdiction.

Government of India

New Delhi, the 4th September, 1947.

From:

Rai Sahib P. N. Mahanti, M.A., Deputy Secretary to the Government of India

To:

The Chief Secretary to the Government of Bombay, Bombay.

Indo-British Goodwill and Cultural Mission to India.

Sir,

With reference to your telegram No. 1553/46-A-1, dated the 22nd August 1947, I am directed to say that a reply from the High Commissioner for India in London regarding the date of arrival in India of the Mission and the programme which the Mission proposes to follow during its stay in this country, has not yet been received. It is, however, learnt from a news item published in the press that the Mission left for India on the 21st August 1947. A further communication will be addressed to you as soon as its programme is known to this Department. In case the Government of Bombay come to know of the programme of the Mission earlier, they will undoubtedly give all possible facilities to the Mission for its tour and contacts in the Province of Bombay.

2. As regards the expenditure to be incurred on account of the Mission, I am to explain that the Indo-British Cultural Mission has been organised on the initiative of the Indian cultural unity movement in co-operation with a number of cultural societies in England and that they do not want any financial assistance from the Central Government or Provincial Government for financing the tours of the Mission in India. They, however, expect hospitality from private persons and financial assistance from members of the public of India who are interested in the movement.

The Provincial Governments were accordingly requested in this Department letter No. D. 111/47-OS.V, dated the 12th July 1947, to give the Mission necessary facilities and assistance during the course of its tour in their areas. It was not the intention of the Government of India that the Provincial Government would be required to give any financial assistance to the Mission or incur any expenditure from the Public Revenues on account of the Mission.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Sir,
Indo British Goodwill and Cultural Mission in South India - Tour in Ramnad District - Particulars furnished.

Reference: Government Memorandum No. 41286-C-1-47-9 dated 30-12-47.

In Government Memorandum quoted above it has been scheduled that the party would leave Ramnad on 31-3-48 by car for Rameswaram. I invite the attention of the Government to the fact that journey by car from Ramnad to Rameswaram is not possible as the Pamban channel intervenes and it can be crossed only by railway or boat. The programme may therefore be changed suitably. They may leave Ramnad for Rameswaram by train at 4.23 A.M. on 31-3-48 reach Rameswaram at 6-50 A.M. entrain therefrom for Dhanushkodi Pier at 2 P.M. and reach Dhanushkodi Pier at 3.20 P.M. Sir,

INDO-British Goodwill and Cultural Mission to India - Programme for their visit to Madras - Your letter No.41286 Cl.9.47.Edn., dated 7-1-48.

..... p. 179 ante.

The leader of the Mission, Swami Avyaktananda, a member of the Ramakrishna Order, has written to the President of the Local Branch of the Mission to help in the organization of a programme for the Mission. Accordingly Swami Kailasananda has arranged for two public meetings in the city to meet the members of the Mission. -- One a reception meeting on Sunday the 15th February '48 at the Ramakrishna Math premises, Mylapore, at 5-30 P.M. and the other on the 18th February 1948, under the auspices of the Indian Council of World affairs (Madras Branch) at the premises of the Vivekananda College under the Presidency of His Excellency the Governor at 6 P.M.

In addition to this, the leader Swami Avyaktananda, has kindly agreed to preside over the "College Day" function of the Vivekananda College and distribute the prizes on Saturday, the 14th February at about 5 P.M.

It has also been arranged that the Mission should visit (1) the Vivekananda College and the Orphanage - The Ramakrishna Mission Students' Home, (2) all the Ramakrishna Mission Institutions (including Sarada Vidyalaya and the Widows' Home) at Tyagarayanagar.

It is also the desire of the President that the Mission may have a peep into the temporary camp of the Ramakrishna Mission Residential High School at Athur on the Palar Road (three miles from Chingleput on the Chingleput-Conjeevaram Road) and the Hindu Religious School at Wallajabad on the same Road. These can be fitted into the programme for Conjeevaram. The party may motor thro' Chingleput and on their way peep into these institutions.

The programme prepared does not say where the Mission members will stay. Swami Avyaktananda will, however, stay at the Ramakrishna Math, Mylapore.

I shall be glad if you will kindly have the above items incorporated in the draft programme.

The tentative programme received with Government Memo cited has been adjusted so far as the stay of the Mission in Madras is considered. I enclose a copy of the programme as revised by me. I request that it may be approved.
The institutions and persons mentioned in the programme are being contacted and I shall try to arrange for the stay of the members in private families. But in cases where this is not possible the Tahsildars of Madras North and South have been instructed to arrange for the accommodation of the Mission at "Woodlands" "Gonemera Hotel" or any other hotel. It is understood that the leader of the Mission and another will be staying at the Ramakrishna Muth, Mylapore and that the remaining members alone require accommodation and other facilities.

My dear Mr. Subrahmanyan,

After a very strenuous programme for five days continuously, the members of the Goodwill Mission feel exhausted completely. They feel now unexpectedly unable to stand the journey to Tirupati & back in one day. They would be very glad if the Tirupati programme is dropped. They feel very sorry to have given trouble to you & local officers. They desire to be excused for this unexpected change.

I am sure you realise the situation. I thank you

Sir,

On behalf of the Indo-British Goodwill and Cultural Mission to India, I thank you and the Madras Government most cordially for arranging hospitality and transport, and for framing a comprehensive programme with all necessary facilities. We are so sorry that owing to our physical inability we have not been able to follow all the details of the programme, as during the last five months we have been very busy with heavy programmes in different parts of India. We do hope you will excuse us for cancelling certain items of the programme.

We have heard from Thomas Cooks & Sons about our boat from Colombo to the United Kingdom. We are sorry to say that we have to sail a week earlier than we expected. It is for this reason that we have been compelled to omit some places from our itinerary and frame a new programme, a copy of which is enclosed herewith. We hope you will understand our difficulty and excuse us for the alterations.

We shall be most grateful if you will arrange two cars for us to go to Pondicherry and Tiruvannamalai and

Sir,

Indo-British Goodwill and Cultural Mission's visit to Madras Presidency.

Your letter dated 16-2-1948.

I am directed to say that the Govt. regret that it will not be possible to arrange for two cars to take the members of the Mission to Pondicherry and Tiruvannamalai and bring them back, as desired, as the journey will be too long and may cost much. Further it will be difficult to get the necessary quantity of petrol because of petrol rationing.

I am therefore to suggest that journey may be performed by trains. I am to add that the Govts. of Mysore and Trivandrum are being addressed to afford all facilities to the Mission.

His Excellency of the District, Mysore and Trivandrum

Dear Mr. Subramanian,

I attach herewith a note from my Tahsildar, Mr. Gopalakrishnan who was deputed by me to attend on the Indo British Cultural Good will Mission during their stay in Madras. On the 13th instant the Mission had to lunch at Government House at the invitation of His Excellency the Governor. The Tahsildar's report shows that while he was at the telephone speaking to the A.D.C. to His Excellency the Governor, the members of the Mission started off in a taxi and lost their way and eventually turned up at 1-35 P.M. at the Government House, Guindy. The head of the Mission, Swami Avyuktananda also supported the Tahsildar's account when I met him. It is extremely regrettable that this should have happened and I would like the facts to be communicated to His Excellency.

2. As regards the failure of Swami Prasanthananda to attend to lunch at 1-35 P.M. I got a phone call from His Excellency's A.D.C. telling me that one of the members invited had not turned up. I immediately phoned Mr. Ramanujachariar, Secretary of the Ramakrishna Mutt, who was looking after the Mission. I asked Mr. Chariar why one of the persons invited had not gone to the Government House. He said that the invitation was received at 11 A.M. on that day. I told him that the time of the receipt of the invitation was immaterial. As the Governor is the head of the Provincial Government, an invitation, received even ten minutes before the function, should have been honoured. I attribute the failure of Swami Prasanthananda to go to the lunch purely to lack of manners on the part of this gentleman. I was requested by the head of the Ramakrishna Mutt to secure an invitation for this gentleman. I am very sorry indeed that he should have behaved in this fashion. I would like, however, to point out that the Tahsildar is not only free from all blame, but he has been displaying considerable energy and has been looking after the Mission very well. I should be grateful if you could place these facts before the Government and also convey them to His Excellency the Governor.

Yours sincerely,

D. Padmanabhan

Sir,

INDO BRITISH GOOD WILL MISSION - Stay in Madras - Arrangements - Incident in Government House, Guindy-Report submitted.

AS ordered by the Collector, I furnish below a true account of what took place at the Government House ^{Grandy} at Lunch time on 13-2-48.

On that day myself and the Dy. Tahsildar, Mr. Jambulingam picked up the members of the Mission at their residences as usual at 8 A.M. and after visiting the Sanskrit College, the Commemara Library, the Government Museum, the Chennapuri Andhra Mahasabha, the Medical College and the Presidency College -- all according to the scheduled time - brought back the Mission to the Ramakrishna Mutt at Brodies Road, Mylapore at 12-50 P.M. The lunch at the Government House, Guindy, was to be held at 1-20 P.M. and as the members wanted to have a wash before going there, they were taken to the Mutt at their request. While washing, they sent word through a member of the Mutt, that we might phone to the A.D.C. to H.E. the Governor, that the Mission was starting, and that they will be at the Government House in about 10 minutes. We went to the phone in the adjoining room, and phoned to the A.D.C. accordingly. I also requested the A.D.C. that the sentries at the gates of the Government House may be instructed to let the cars in as soon as we approached them, and not insist on any gate pass etc. The A.D.C. replied that everything was O.K. and that we may come in. It was now 1 O'clock, and when we came out of the room we found the members of the Mission and one taxi missing. Swamis, ^{Rishi-}~~Gadi-~~ Krishnananda and Prasanthananda who were following the Mission all along, were alone in the verandah, and they told us that the members of the Mission had left for the Government House in one taxi, leaving the other taxi for us to follow. I

I thereupon asked them also to get into our taxi, to which they replied that they had received no invitations and were not therefore going to the Government House. We therefore got into the taxi and went to the Government House, Guindy. We reached there at about 1-10 P.M. There we found that the members of the Mission who started ahead of us in one taxi had not come. We therefore stayed at the gate hoping that the other taxi would also come soon and that we may get in together. The A.D.C. who happened to see us from a distance asked us to come in. When I went near him he asked me who I was and my companion were, and on being told who we were he asked us where the members of the Mission had gone to. I then told him in a few words how they started in advance of me when I was in the phone room and how we had followed them to the Government House. The A.D.C. then flew into a rage, stamped his feet, and rated us like anything, in the following strain: "You people have no sense; you do not know to keep time; why don't you come an hour in advance etc." When I wanted to explain further he cut us short by saying 'silly, foolish' etc. As words were not allowed to explain ourselves we kept quiet. It was now 1-35 P.M. and the members of the Mission came just then in their taxi and the lunch was proceeded with.

I ^{subsequently} then learnt, after enquiry, that the members of the Mission who knew that the lunch was at Guindy and who had also the invitation cards with them simply told the driver to go to the Government House, and the driver took them to the old Government House at Mount Road and from there came to Guindy.

It will be clear from the above that the delay was not due to any fault on our part, but it was due to circumstances beyond our control inasmuch as the members of the Mission deliberately forsook our escort and ~~to go~~ started independently. The Collector knows that we have been working strenuously for the last fifteen days ~~for~~ arranging for the Mission's stay in in Madras, and that we had been following them every day from 7 A.M. to 12 midnight. So far, everything has been getting on satisfactorily, as several hosts and guests have ~~explained~~ ^{expressed} to the Collector in person. We are therefore extremely sorry that for a fault which was not our making, the A.D.C. should have taken us to task and that too in the language he ~~used~~ ^{used}. We only request that the true facts may be reported to the Government to avoid misunderstanding in the high quarters.

We beg to remain,

Sir,

A1. 6195/47 dated 4th March, 1948.

INDO BRITISH GOOD WILL AND CULTURAL MISSION TO INDIA.
Government Memo No. 41286 C1/47 dated 8-7-47, 3-12-47 and 27-1-'48.

The mission which had originally programmed to depart from Madras on 19-2-'48 went to Seven Pagodas on the morning of 19-2-'48 and returned the same night. The members extended their stay for another three days i.e., up to the end of 22-2-'48 and then left for Pondicherry by train on the night of 22-2-'48. They returned to Madras on the night of 26-2-'48. After staying the whole day at Madras on 27-2-'48, they finally left for Bangalore at 9-15 P.M..

2. No expenses were incurred by Government regarding their meals and accommodation throughout their stay in Madras as both these were provided from local hospitality. Attempts to get private conveyance for their use failed. Two taxis were engaged for their conveyance during their stay in Madras. The total expenditure on these heads for the whole period has come to Rs. 959/-. All possible facilities were afforded to the Mission.

3. I would like to bring to the notice of the Government the energy and good humor with which my Tahsildars Sri R. Gopalakrishna Iyer and Sri M. Jambulingam discharged their duty of taking the mission and looking after them. The task by no means was easy as the members of the mission did not always I am afraid appreciate the need for punctuality.

in Britain and president of the Indian Cultural Unity Movement. (2) Vyayen Jenkins, President, the Society for Cultural Exchanges with India (3)
Dr. D.N. Dutt, Member of the Indian Cultural Unity Movement

As regards B on p 12 and the Govt the Secretary of the Mission Vyayen Jenkins and the Govt of India have asked that dinners should be vegetarian acceptable to all Communions. As regards the type of accommodation they would require, the Secretary & the Govt of India have stated that to mix easily with the people of the Rural India the members propose to follow a simple mode of living in all possible ways and to accept the hospitality of friendly people in order to come into intimate association with Indian family life. ~~It is suggested that the members should be accommodated in the houses of the people of the place.~~
The above information may be furnished to the Collector of Madras.

If the Collector of Madras is able to provide accommodation for the members of the Mission with friendly people during their stay in the city this may not be much expenditure by way of accommodation and boarding.
The Secretary of the Ramakrishna Mission is may be better to say that the Swami Ayakthananda will be staying in the Mission during his stay in Rangoon. If it would be convenient and possible the other members of the Mission may also be accommodated there.

 The Collector of Rangoon may be requested to get into touch with the Secretary of the Rangoon District Mission in Rangoon on this point.

The Collectors of Districts have been asked to arrange for placing his cars at the disposal of the Mission during its stay in each district. This and other expenditure each Collector may have to meet out of special funds. The Collectors may be authorised to incur expenditure from public funds for entertaining the Mission during its stay in each district. It is difficult to estimate the expenditure here.

 with reference to the Secretary's remarks at A above it is submitted that in the tentative programme of the Indo-British Goodwill and Cultural Mission Visit to the Madras City 13th February (Friday) has been provisionally fixed as the date for interviewing H.E. the Governor and the members of the Cabinet. The tentative programme sent to the Mission has not yet been approved by it. There has been no communication from the Mission so far. It is not known whether they are visiting Madras City on the 11th as ^{originally} proposed. Perhaps this may be circumscribed to H.E. & the members of the Cabinet ^{to ascertain} whether they would be willing to interview the Mission on the 13th as tentatively tentatively arranged. It is presumed that some of the Madras Ministers will be out of Madras City on the 13th in connection with the immersion ceremony of Mahatma's ashes.

These will not probably be a revision of date. As the date is provisionally fixed it is enough if we make definite arrangements after his exact date of his visit here are known.

See or direct to the Principal Secy to H.P.R. in this matter.

It is understood that the Indo-British Good-will Mission is arriving in Madras at about 1-30 P.M. to-day. According to the present programme, the Mission will be in Madras until the 16th morning and on the 16th and 17th the Mission will visit Tirupathi & Conjeevaram respectively. The Mission will again be in Madras on the 18th. One of the items in the programme is interview by the Mission of H.Pr. and H.Ms. This item has been put down for the 13th. On the 13th most of the H.Ms. will be away from Madras. The interview must therefore be arranged on the 14th or 18th. For interviewing the H.Pr. and H.Ms. individually, it may be more convenient if the H.Pr. invites the members of the Mission for lunch or dinner sometime either on the 14th or on the 18th and also ask all H.Ms. to be in Madras at that time. The Principal Private Secretary to the H.Pr. may be asked to consult H.Pr. in this matter.
