The Secretary to the Government of Madras,
Education and Public Health Department,
FORT ST. GEORGE.

Sir,

I have the honour to state that with reference to G.O.No.818 Education dated 22nd April 1947 two classes for training pandits are working in 1947-48 - One at Rajahmundry and the other at Mangalore. It is considered desirable that a Government Examination should be conducted at the end of the training course and certificates awarded to successful candidates. I am asking the Principals of the College to conduct such an examination for these pandits at the end of the training course. The examination will consist of two papers of three hours' duration each (one paper on child and school management and the other on the method of teaching the particular language concerned). Candidates securing a minimum of 35% in each paper will be declared as successful (Class II) and those getting 60% in the aggregate will be declared to have passed in Class I. It is not proposed to levy any examination fees from the candidates ~~and~~ ^{not} remunerate the question paper setters and those who value the answer papers. The results of the examination will be published in the Fort St. George Gazette and certificates to successful candidates will be issued by me. If the Pandits training class becomes a permanent feature, a regular examination may be instituted in consultation with the T.S.L.C. Board with effect from 1949. For the year 1948, I request that Government may be pleased to approve of the foregoing suggestion. I am instructing the Principals to conduct the examination as explained above.

Your most obedient servant,

It is not good policy not to levy fees and not to give remuneration to examiners. This will itself create an inferiority complex among the pandits and examiners and they will point out how the regional languages are treated as an inferior language. The D.P.I. may be asked to suggest an examination fee and also the remuneration to be paid to the examiners. Subject to that, the holding of the examination itself and other points made out in the draft may be approved.
