To The Secretary, E.P.N. and P.H. Dept.
Education,
Fort St. George, Madras.

Sir,

Secondary schools-Scholarship Bills

I am thankful that you were pleased in your G.O.Ms.2278 Edn dated 28-10-47 to permit headmasters of aided secondary schools to draw the scholarship bills from the Treasury, subject to the approval of the Correspondent.

I request that this privilege be extended also to the cashing at Government Treasury of the bills relating to the book-allowances to children and other dependents of soldiers serving in the wars of 1939-1945. The same argument holds good here, and no distinction need be made between headmasters of schools under private managements and headmasters of schools under local bodies. I hope that early orders be passed on this question.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

R. Srinivasa Iyengar
Headmaster.

To The Director of Public Instruction,
Cathedral Post Office,

To Secy., E.& P.H.

In view of 'A' above, I think 'B' also may be granted.

The same headmaster now requests that bills relating to the book-allowance to children and other dependents of soldiers who served in the recent war may also be drawn by the headmaster of aided secondary schools from Treasuries. H.M.
