Copy of letter Rc.No.12564-G1-48 dated 22-11-48 of the Commissioner, Municipal Council, Cuddalore to the Director of Public Instruction, Madras.

The petition of Sri T.C.Sankara Ayyar, Tamil Pandit, Municipal High School, Cuddalore, regarding revision of his pay and fixation of a special scale of pay in view of his past 25 years of service is sent herewith in original. His request may be favourably considered in view of the long service put in by him.

Copy of letter dated 30-9-48 of the Tamil Pandit, T. C. Sankaran, to the D.P.I. Madras.

I respectfully beg to submit my case for favourable consideration.

I am a permanent Tamil Pandit in the Municipal High School, Cuddalore having put in a service of nearly 25 years. I am a completed S.S.L.C. holder.

I have undergone Training in the Oriental Training College at Chidambaram. I have a working knowledge of Telugu and Sanskrit. I studied under the late Sri Gnanamier Swamikal of Tirupopuliyur a reputed scholar of South Indian fame from whom several have gone for the erudite and scholarly. Copy of his certificate has been enclosed herewith.

I was appointed in the year 1923; and I am the only Tamil Pandit in charge of upper forms. I am handling Translation work in the upper forms.

The remarks of the District Educational Officers have been ~~inter~~ uniform. They have certified that the Teaching is methodical.

Rao Saheb J. Bhagyanathan Ex-head-master of the School has remarked that the Teaching is good and impressive and that I deserve encouragement.

In view of the above reasons, I request that you may be pleased to include me in Grade I of the Tamil Pandits, classification recently ordered by the Government.

I pray therefore that early orders may be passed revising my salary in that grade from 1-1-1947.

For this act of kindness I shall ever remain grateful.

N.Bis.675 dated 6-10-48.

Submitted.

The petitioner is the Tamil Pandit of the school. He requests that he may be classified as a Pandit belonging to grade I and his salary be revised accordingly.

His qualifications are as follows: He is a holder of a completed S.S.L.C. He has undergone training in the oriental training college at Chidambaram. He is a Pre 1926 Pandit in the old scale of Rs.40-1-60.

The pay actually drawn by him is Rs.56/- including weightage.

He has put in a service of 25 years as pandit. He is superior to the ordinary run of Tamil Pandits in that his acquaintanceship with English and Telugu helps him to make his teaching interesting and informing. Clearness of exposition is another characteristic of his.

But the G.O. (G.O.No.526 Education, dated 15th March 1948) referred to does not help him. Hence he prays, that Special consideration be shown to him and he be treated as grade I Pandit.

(Sd.) R. Swaminatha Ayyar.
