My dear Mr. Subramaniam, 24948

I am enclosing herewith an application for the extension of my leave by 20 days, which I trust Government will consider favourably. I should not have asked for this extension but for the fact that I have not just now been able to secure a house in Ooty. It would be expensive if I cannot spend at least a month there & as I have to go there after my village to attend to some private affairs I badly need this extension of leave. I shall be grateful if you could kindly communicate the order of govt. to the address given below, as I am leaving for Ooty on the 2nd of next month.

With many regards,
Erna Doone,
Baikie Road,
Ootacamund.

Yours sincerely,
D. Doone

Sir,

I beg to apply for an extension of my leave by 20 days & request that such order may be passed & communicated to the address given below.

Yours faithfully,
D. Reddi
