In 1942 when the Government delegated the powers of a Head of a department to the Superintendent, Government Museum in respect of the grant of Madras House Allowance, only the Curators were eligible for the allowance. Subsequently when the clerks in my office became eligible for the drawal of the Madras House Allowance, I have been passing orders sanctioning Madras House Allowance to my clerks from January 1948 onwards. The Accountant General, Madras, now points out that the Government Order first cited above refers only to the Curators and that separate specific orders of Government are necessary in respect of exercising the powers of the head of a department to sanction Madras House Allowance to the clerical staff in the Government Museum. He has also pointed out that as the Curators have now become eligible for the Madras House Allowance under the G.O. No. 998 Edn. dated the 9-7-1942 are deemed to be inoperative. I therefore to request that Government will be pleased to issue an order to the effect that the original orders of Government in G.O. No. 998 Edn. dated the 9-7-1942 are deemed to be inoperative.

orders delegating powers to me to sanction the Madras House Allowance to the ministerial staff under my control. I also request that my action in having sanctioned Madras House Allowance to my staff in the past may be approved.

Yours faithfully,

A. Rajappa

E. & P.H. propose to delegate powers to the Superintendent, Government museum to sanction M.H.A. the ministerial staff under his control.

The post of Head clerk in the Govt. Museum carries a scale of pay of Rs. 80-110, and apparently he is drawing the M.A. with reference to the option in para 2 of G.O. 732 dated 26-7-48. If and when there is a change in the personnel, M.H.A. will cease to be admissible. If the post successor will be entitled only to the new house rent allowance. In view of this position, there appears to be no sufficient justification to deleg powers to the superintendent just in order to sanction M.H.A. to a solitary Govt. servant and that too, for the period he continues to hold the post of Head clerk.

This Department have already expressed a similar view in another connection relating to the delegation of power to the Editor, I.L.R. to sanction M.H.A. to his head clerk.
