I have the honour to invite your attention to the Memo referred to above and to report that about seven months' training will be over for five trainees in the Schools for the blind at Rentachintla and Palamcottah by 31-3-49. One trainee has discontinued, as he is suffering from T.B. For the remaining five trainees on the rolls another two months training will have to be given during 1949-50.

2. Though the trainees have been deputed by aided Schools it is felt that there are serious difficulties of a practical nature in the way of the aided schools reemploying these teachers when they are not attending the training course during the ensuing vacation. These difficulties are

(1) The aided schools have to pay the substitutes for the vacation period and

(II) the teachers who have received special training, will be employed by the Government in Government Schools to be opened during 1949-50 and the teachers, if reemployed in their old schools may have to be disturbed, first for undergoing the remaining part of the training and then for finally joining work under Government.

3. It has been represented to me that the teachers will have to practically starve during the vacation, if the Government do not come to their rescue. Further, the trainees may seek other means of livelihood and refuse to undergo the remaining part of the course, in which case the plans of the Government for opening new schools for defectives will be defeated. In view of this, I have the honour to recommend that the Government be pleased to sanction payment of pay and Dearness Allowance to the trainees for the vacation months April and May 1949. As the amount required for the purpose is only Rs.470/-. I request that the Government may be pleased to sanction this amount.

4. Though the course of training for the blind, is of one academic year, the particular batch of trainees undergoing the course now, were admitted to the training only during September 1948 and the course had perforce to be split into two parts falling within two financial years 1948-49 and 1949-50 with an intervening vacation. It was not possible to start the training earlier, as the Scheme was sanctioned by Government in June 1948 and the response from Candidates to enroll for the training was slow and numerically poor.

5. I request the favour of early orders as the trainees have to be assured of their means of maintenance during the ensuing vacation before the closure of the school, within a few days from now.

Yours faithfully,

G. Sankaranarayanan for Director of Public Instruction.

Note. The training of six teachers for the blind was sanctioned in G.O.Ms. No 1560 Edn d 15-6-48, could not be started earlier for the reasons stated in the D.P.S's letter at p1cf. ~~Because of the delayed start~~, The summer vacation intervenes during the period of training of ten months. The D.P.S states that the vacation

Salary of the trainees may not be borne by the managements of the schools from which they were selected, as there is no likelihood of the teachers serving them after the training. ~~As this would~~ ^{cause} ~~entail~~ considerable hardship to the trainees, the D.P.S recommends that the vacation salary and dearness allowance for the five trainees may be met by Govt. His recommendation may be accepted. The draft order above is for approval. It may be sent to Finance U.O. for acceptance.
