Dated 4th April 1949.

Sir,

Printing - High Court Records - Employment of Private Presses.

26846

There are now about 3800 cases pending printing in the Government Press, Madras. It works out to about one lakh of printed pages. The Superintendent, Government Press, says that it will be possible to turn out only 300 printed pages a day whereas the normal requirement of the High Court is about 750 pages a day. At the present rate of 300 pages a day it will take atleast 15 months to clear off the pendency. Over 6000 manuscript pages (Criminal and Civil) are sent to Press every week. The Government Press will not be able to take up this work at all until after a year and a half. The number of ready cases on hand is expected to meet the requirements of Court only for 4 months in respect of First and Second Appeals and 2 months regarding other classes of cases.

The Superintendent, Government Press, has in the circumstances decided that the procedure adopted in regard to entrustment of printing work of the High Court to private presses between January 1946 and April 1948 may be followed now also. He requests that sanction of Government may be obtained for entrustment of printing work to private presses for a period of six months so as to enable him to make provision in the budget allotment under "56 Stationery and Printing - Printing at Private Presses". Attention is invited to Mr. Raman Nayar's letter, R No. 5604/45.B1 dated 16-1-46 and G.O. Nos. 134 and 311 Education dated respectively 18-1-46 and 13-2-46.

Pls CF 7 (C)

As the strength of the High Court Bench has considerably increased and work has to be provided for more Benches with a view to clear off the bulk of accumulated arrears a larger output of printed pages per day has become absolutely necessary. I therefore request that the Government may be pleased to sanction the entrustment of printing work to private presses for a period of six months.

of part of the High Court printing work to private presses for a period of six months on terms and conditions similar to those which governed such entrustment during the period between January 1946 and April 1948 and that orders may be issued as expeditiously as possible.

High Court, Madras, dated: 22/4/1949.

Dear Ummithan,

SUB: Printing - High Court Records -
Employment of private Presses.

REF: My letter ROC.2541/48-B1, dated
4-4-49.

31785

The Superintendent, Government Press, Madras has informed me that it will not be possible even to maintain the present rate of output of printed pages per day, much less to ensure any increase in output in future as was expected. He requests that very early orders may be obtained as to entrustment of printing work to private Presses. On the reopening of the Court after Summer-recess, we will not be having sufficient reserve of ready cases to meet the requirements of Benches. Further efforts are being made to get ready for printing as many cases as possible during the vacation as there is a heavy accumulation of arrears.

I request that orders sanctioning the entrustment of work to private Presses may be issued as expeditiously as possible.

Yours sincerely,
