R.O.C.No. 440-C1/49 dated 26th March 1949.

Sir,

MADRAS EDUCATIONAL SERVICE—Officers officiating under emergency provisions in colleges—continuance in service during the summer vacation.

omitted at p. 3 infra

1 The number of officers officiating in the Madras Educational Service (Collegiate section) under emergency provisions is 48 - 15 in Arts and Training Colleges and 33 in Engineering Colleges as shown in the annexures I and II to this letter. I request that Government may kindly approve the continuance of these officers except Sri G. Govindarajan, Lecturer in Tamil, Government College, Kumbakonam, in the Madras Educational Service during the summer vacation 1949.

2 Of the 15 officers in Arts and Training Colleges, the services of 12 will be required even after the reopening of the colleges. The three other officers are Messrs. B. Appa Rao, G. Govindarajan and K.V.V. Subbaraju in respect of whom it is not possible to say definitely whether they will be continued in the Madras Educational Service or not after the vacation.

3 Sri B. Appa Rao will have to revert to the Subordinate Educational Service when the war service candidate appointed to the post of Lecturer in Education, Government Training College, Rajahmundry takes charge. As it is not known when the candidate will do so, Sri B. Appa Rao may be continued in service until relieved by the war service candidate.

4 Sri G. Govindarajan, Lecturer in Tamil, Government College, Kumbakonam need not be retained in the Madras Educational Service during the summer vacation unless the proposal to revert him to the Subordinate Educational Service as a disciplinary measure is dropped. In this connection, I invite the attention of Government to my letter R.O.C. 9/49 dated 17.2.1949 in regard to the reversion of this officer to the Subordinate Educational Service on 3.4.1949 A.N.

5 Sri K.V.V. Subbaraju, Lecturer in Commerce, Government College, Mangalore is the only officer who is an outsider with no stake in Government service. As there is no likelihood of a regular appointment being made to this post from the beginning of the academic year 1949-50, I recommend that Sri K.V.V. Subbaraju, whose services may be required after the vacation, be retained in service during the vacation subject to the condition that he gives an undertaking in writing that he will continue to serve the Department even after the vacation until he is relieved by Government.

6 The services of all the officers in the Madras Educational Service in the Engineering Colleges (Annexure II) will be required after the vacation unless the return of some Overseas Scholars intended for appointment in these colleges leads to the discharge of any persons appointed under emergency provisions. As it is not possible to anticipate the time of return of Overseas Scholars, it is not necessary to discontinue the services of any of the existing officers for the vacation period. As before, Sri P.P. Ramaswami and Sri Sitapati (Nos. 14 and 20 in the Annexure), who are outsiders, are no footing in this department, may be retained in service subject to the condition that they give an undertaking to serve the Department even after the vacation until relieved by Government. The name of Sri G.S.Ramaswami, Officiating Instructor, College of Engineering, Kakinada may be excluded for this purpose as he is likely to be relieved before the commencement of the vacation so as to enable him to take up his new post in the Annamalai University.

Attention is invited to G.O.No.960-Edn., dated 23.4.1948 approving the continuance in service of officers holding emergency appointments during the summer vacation of 1948.
