Rc. No. 506 13/48 dated 25.1. 194 9.

Sir, Sub:- T.A. Relaxation of Rule 68 (iii) and 71 of the Madras Travelling Allowance Rules for bringing the family and personal effects beyond the limit - Requested.

I have the honour to state that Mr. Paul Jesudason joined duty on 26.1.48 as Assistant Lecturer in English in the Govt. College, Coimbatore. In March 1948, he reported that he was not able to secure a house in Coimbatore ever since his joining duty, though he applied to the House Rent Controller for providing him with accommodation. He applied for permission to claim Transit Travelling Allowance on behalf of his family and personal effects on securing a house. He was asked to report in the matter soon after his family and personal effects are brought to Coimbatore. The Assistant Lecturer now reports that he managed to secure a house and has brought his family and personal effects and thus completed the transit and requests that he may be permitted to draw Travelling Allowance for his family and personal effects.

With reference to the Note under Rule 68 (VI) 71 of the Madras Travelling Allowance Rules the personal effects and the family of the Govt. servant should have been brought to the place of transfer within 3 months from the date on which he joined duty. But the Assistant Lecturer could not do so in view of the difficult conditions in securing accommodation (which was beyond his control) in spite of applying to the Rent Controller.

In the circumstances, I request you to relax the Rules and permit the Assistant Lecturer to draw his Transit Travelling Allowance for bringing his family and personal effects beyond the limits stipulated under Rule 68 (VI) and 71 of the Madras Travelling Allowance Rules.

Yours faithfully,
