*Q. No. 633: Will the Hon. the Minister for Education be pleased to state:-

(a) whether the half fee concessions given to the Backward Class Communities are ~~not~~ given to the students of such Communities in the Annamalai University?

(b) whether Rule 92(2) of the Education Code has no application to that University;

(c) if so, whether the Government will be pleased to take steps to enforce that rule in that University having regard to the grants made to that University by this Government, which last year amounted to the huge sum of Rs.2,07,300/-;

(d) if not, whether the Government will be pleased to call for reports about the reasons for the denial of these concessions to the backward classes; and

(e) whether it is a fact that the Vanniyakula Kshatriyas who form the majority of the population in South Arcot and who are classed as "Backward" have also been denied these concessions (1/5th of the population of Madras Presidency)?

whether the half fee concessions given to the Backward Class Communities are given to the students of such communities in the Annamalai University?

The Annamalai University is not giving half fee concessions to the students belonging to the backward communities as a rule. But they have a system of scholarships by which scholarships are awarded to students of decided ability needing financial help. In the award of these scholarships special consideration is shown by the University to students belonging to backward communities. The University is also granting full fee concessions to students belonging to the Harijans and the scheduled castes. The Govt. are considering the question of compensating the Universities for the loss they may sustain in granting half fee concessions under Rule 92 of the M.E.R. to the students belonging to the backward communities studying in the institutions maintained by them.

ANSWER.

The Annamalai University is not giving half fee concessions to the students belonging to the backward communities as a rule. But they have a system of scholarships by which scholarships are awarded to students of decided ability needing financial help. In the award of these scholarships special consideration is shown by the University to students belonging to backward communities. The University is also granting full fee concessions to students belonging to the Harijan and the scheduled castes. The Government are considering the question of compensating the Universities for the loss they may sustain in granting half fee concessions under Rule 92 of the Madras Educational Rule to the students belonging to the backward communities studying in the institutions maintained by them.

Please see L.A. question no. 633 at page 1 of this is the same as question no. 407 in Q which was proposed to be asked in the previous session of the Assembly but was not answered as the Assembly was prorogued. The answer approved for the previous session is at Q/Ref. page 7 of Q. It may be mentioned in this connection that Govt. have recently passed orders that the three universities in the province will be compensated for a period of 10 years from 1948-49 for the loss sustained by them on the grant of full fee concession to Hindia Harijan Students studying in the educational institutions maintained by these universities. According to Rule 92 of the MER members of the backward communities other than Harijans as listed in Appendix 17A of the MER are eligible for ^{half} fee concessions. The Annamalai University is not granting this concession to the students as the Govt are not compensating the university for the loss sustained by it in granting this concession. The question of compensating the universities for such loss is separately under consideration. A draft answer is submitted for approval.

The answer may be approved.

But, with regard to 'A' above, I hope we have passed orders that we may give such a compensation. The exact state of affairs may be put up to enable me answering supplementaries.

The Govt have ordered that the universities should be compensated for the loss in fee income in respect of Hindia Harijans only - vide G.O. No. 1962 and 9-8-48. The question whether compensation should be paid for students belonging to backward classes is to be taken up separately. H.M. may see after despatch of ^{draft} answer.

In view of the answer that we are giving, we must also take up that matter. That matter may be taken up separately and circulated.
