Sir,

plants etc. - Deputation of staff.
Ref: G.O.Ms.No.3307 Edn., dated 27th December 1948.

With reference to the orders in the Government Order cited, I deputed my Junior Deputy Superintendent and the Chief Computer on the 1st February 1949 to Pudukkottai for taking stock of plant, machinery, tools, furniture, etc., in the State Press, Pudukkottai. The work was taken up and finished during their halt there from the 2nd of February to 14th February '49.

In the Travelling allowance bill claimed for the journey, the Accountant-General requires that sanction of Government is required for the grant of daily allowance for periods exceeding 10 days halt. As the halt was in the interest of public service, sanction may please be accorded for the payment of daily allowance for the entire period of the halt at Pudukkottai at the rates prescribed in rule 38 of the Madras Travelling Allowance Rules.
