The D.P.I. is informed that if the temporary ^{posts} of librarians sanctioned in G.O. No. 1824. Edu., dated, 22-7-48, are classified as constituting separate posts in category 13 of the Madras Ministerial Service, as proposed in the draft ad-hoc rules submitted by the D.P.I., the posts will automatically fall within the purview of the Madras Public Service Commission and that body will have to select the candidates for appointment to those posts by direct recruitment. ^{But the candidates have already been selected by the D.P.I.} If the posts are intended to be kept outside the Commission's purview, they should be included in a distinct class of the Madras General Subordinate Service. The D.P.I. is accordingly requested to submit the necessary draft ad-hoc rules on the analogy of the special rules under class

XXXIII of the Madras General Subordinate Service (pages 106-107 of the Madras

If, as proposed in the draft ad hoc rules, the temporary posts of librarians sanctioned in G.O. No. 1824, Edu, & 22.7.48 are classified as constituting separate posts in category 13 of the Madras Ministerial Service, the posts will automatically fall within the Commission's purview and that body will have to select the candidates for appointment to those posts by direct recruitment. The D. P. I. has already selected two candidates for appointment to the temporary posts of librarians, one of them being a l.d. clerk in his office and the other a teacher in the T. T. V. High School, Madras which is a private institution. The intention apparently is to keep the posts outside the Commission's purview. In that
