Madras,
8th January 1949.

To
The Senior Translator to Government,
Madras.

Sir,
I beg to state that I have arranged to get married again by about the last week of January 1949, as I have at ^{present} no other dependents, ever since the dissolution of my previous marriage in 1945 and since the demise of my only dependent thereafter - my mother - who died in September 1947. As it is incumbent upon me to marry again, I am unable to meet the expenses of my marriage from any of my ordinary resources and as my pecuniary circumstances are such that I do not want to run the risk of incurring debts on this account, and, as I have no other resources to fall back upon, I beg to request you may be kindly pleased to sanction the payment of an advance of Rs ^{168/-} ~~192/-~~ (Rupees One hundred and ^{sixty eight} ~~seventy two~~), as a special case, from the amount standing to my credit in my General Provident Fund Account No. 3729-GA, so that I may make the necessary arrangements therefor. The advance so sanctioned, may be recovered in ^{21 (twenty one)} ~~24~~ monthly instalments of Rs 8/- each, with interest as laid down in Rule 15(4) of the G.P.F. (Madras) Rules.

2. I have to my credit in my G.P. Fund Account No 3729-GA, a sum of Rs 346/- on this date. As two previous advances, sanctioned by Government, as a special case - viz - (1) an advance of Rs 120/- (sanctioned in G.O. No. 1512, Education, dated 12.7.1947) and (2) a second advance of Rs. 168/- (sanctioned by Govt in G.O. No. 2086, Education, dated 23rd August 1948) are still current, of which (1) a sum of Rs 30/- is still due to be repaid to the Fund in respect of the first advance and (2) a sum of Rs 140/- is due in respect of the second advance, and as both these advances were sanctioned by Government, as a special case, the sanction of the Government becomes necessary under Rule 140(c) (ii) of the G.P.F. Rules read with G.O. No. 213, Finance (Pension) dated 8.4.1941, for the payment of the third advance ^{now} applied for by me.

3. In view of the urgency of providing the necessary funds for the marriage and in view of the ~~subject~~ pecuniary circumstances I have been placed in at present, I beg to request you may be kind enough to recommend this application to the Government for favour of very early sanction of the payment of the advance of Rs ^{168/-} ~~140/-~~ - now applied for by me, as a special case. The amount of the advance, so sanctioned will be solely utilized for the expenses of the marriage, which in keeping with the status of my family should be performed in the most economical way as possible, and the advance now applied for, is a dire necessity in the circumstances mentioned above.

Yours faithfully,
Sri. N. Bhavani Shankar Rao.
