R.C.No. 39-14/49 dated 16th February 1949.

Sir,

PUBLICATION OF MAHABHASYA OF PATANJALI - VOLUME I -
Free distribution of list submitted for approval.

The first volume of the 'Mahabhasya of Patanjali' printed at the Government Press, Madras as a 'Madras Government Oriental Manuscripts Series' is now available for sale to the public. 300 (Three hundred) copies of the book have been printed, and each copy has been priced at Rs. 20-12-0, which includes 50% profit on the cost price.

2. A few copies of similar publications are usually distributed free of cost (i) to those who were helpful in the publication of the book, (ii) to those who gave the manuscripts, (iii) to the institutions which are sending their publications free of cost to this library, (iv) to some distinguished scholars and educational institutions and to the presses for review. Such a list was submitted and was approved by Government in G.O.No.Ms.166-Edn., dated 21.1.1939 sanctioning the free distribution of the publication "Brahmasiddhi".

3. I am enclosing a list almost similar to the one referred to in para 2 above to whom a copy of the book 'Mahabhasya' may be supplied free of cost and request that the list may be approved by Government. The total number of copies intended for ~~free~~ free distribution comes to 50.

4. In this connection I recommend further that a discount of 25% may be allowed to educational institutions and scholars.

Yours faithfully

K. S. Hanumantha Rao
For Director of Public Instruction.
