* 486 Q.—SRI A. VEDARATNAM PILLAI: Will the Hon. the Minister for Education be pleased to state—

(a) whether students were sent to Wardha for basic training this year;

(b) if so, the number of students sent for training at Wardha;

(c) whether the Government have any proposal to increase the number of basic training schools during the next year; and

(d) if so, the number of such schools and where they are intended to be opened?

THE HON. SRI T. S. AVINASHILINGAM CHETTIYAR:—

“(a) Yes.

“(b) Twelve in the current year.

“(c) & (d) Proposals are under consideration.”

11-15 a.m. SRI A. VEDARATNAM PILLAI:—“Will the Hon. Minister be pleased to state within how many years all the present training schools other than basic schools will be converted into basic training schools? What steps have the Government taken in that respect?”

THE HON. SRI T. S. AVINASHILINGAM CHETTIYAR:—

“The proposal is that within five years, all training schools should be converted into basic training schools.”

SRI B. S. MURTHI:—“Is there any proposal that from next year students will be trained in the Wardha system in the Madras Presidency itself?”

THE HON. SRI T. S. AVINASHILINGAM CHETTIYAR:—

“Even this year students are being trained in this Province, for Andhra in Pentapadu and for Tamil Nad in Periyanaickenpalayam.”

ABDUL HAMEED KHAN SAHIB BAHADUR:—“May I know the approximate number of basic schools that will be functioning at the end of five years?”

THE HON. SRI T. S. AVINASHILINGAM CHETTIYAR:—

“The question is about training schools and I expect that all training schools will be converted into basic training schools and that the new training schools that will be started will be on the basic model.”

SRI L. N. GOPALASWAMI:—“May I know whether the students that have been sent to Wardha for training are only teachers employed in the schools and colleges of Government or do they come from outside schools also?”

THE HON. SRI T. S. AVINASHILINGAM CHETTIYAR:—

“The Government send only their own candidates.”

SRI A. VEDARATNAM PILLAI:—“Is there any proposal to open basic training schools for girls, Sir?”

THE HON. SRI T. S. AVINASHILINGAM CHETTIYAR:—

“There are already some basic training schools for girls.”
