[Issued as Memo No. 9167 Br/us - 1. Dated 23 2/48]

From the D.P.3, No. 431/Br/us dated 2-3-48.

With a view to introduce the scheme of Basic Education in the Province, the Govt. have opened Basic Training Schools to train teachers for basic schools. As the staff required for Basic Training Schools should be well trained in the principles of basic education, the Govt. have been deputed batches of teachers and officers to Sevagram, Wardha, for training in the course organized by the Hindustani Telugu Sangh. Twelve teachers were trained at Sevagram in 1946-47, and seven teachers have been deputed to undergo training in the current year. The Govt. proposed to depute a batch of ten teachers to undergo training during 1948-49.

(p. 20)

at P.3 of of (A)

Out of the twelve teachers trained at Sevagram eleven are working in the Basic Training Schools, while the twelfth teacher, who is now in the gazetted rank, is on the staff of the Govt. Muslim College, Madras. No separate scales of pay and allowances are given to these teachers.

A draft answer with ref. to the question in the cf. is subd. below. The file may be circulated to H.N. (Edn.) for approval of the draft answer.
