* 35 Q.—SRI R. SURYANARAYANA RAO: Will the Hon. the Minister for Education be pleased to state—

(a) whether it is proposed to start separate training schools for training teachers for basic education;

(b) what the subjects taught in those schools will be;

(c) whether the subjects taught in the existing training schools are in any way different from those proposed to be taught in the proposed training schools;

(d) the names of places selected for locating the proposed training schools;

(e) whether training in special crafts is to be provided in these training schools; and if so, what the crafts are; and

(f) whether the status and emoluments of the teachers trained in the proposed basic training schools will be the same as that of teachers trained in the existing training schools?

THE HON. SRI T. S. AVINASHILINGAM CHETTIYAR:—

"(a) The existing training schools are gradually being converted into basic training schools. Due to the increased demand for trained teachers new training schools are being started and they are invariably basic training schools.

"(b), (d) & (e) A statement is laid on the table of the House.

"(c) The subjects taught in the existing training schools are different from those taught in the basic training schools.

"(f) Yes."

SRI R. SURYANARAYANA RAO:—"May I know, Sir, whether the Hon. the Minister is aware that wood-work, metal-work and weaving were taught in the existing training schools before they were converted into basic training schools?"

THE HON. SRI T. S. AVINASHILINGAM CHETTIYAR:—

"The attitude is that through the teaching of basic crafts, education must be given. The old syllabuses do not have the pre-eminence and the emphasis which basic education has, and therefore these things do not find a place in the basic education scheme."

SRI R. SURYANARAYANA RAO:—"May I know what are the qualifications for admission into these basic training schools? Are they the same as those that are observed in regard to other training schools?"

THE HON. SRI T. S. AVINASHILINGAM CHETTIYAR:—"Yes, Sir."

SRI R. SURYANARAYANA RAO:—"May I ask the Hon. Minister whether in regard to the basic training schools, suitable alterations have been made in the rules to lower the qualifications for admissions?"

THE HON. SRI T. S. AVINASHILINGAM CHETTIYAR:—"No qualifications have been lowered for admission into basic training schools."
