Sir,

Subject:- Government Servant's Conduct Rules --
Sri V. K. Ayyappan Pillai -- Permission to deliver the "Wilson Philological Lectures".

The University of Bombay has invited Sri V. K. Ayyappan Pillai, Professor, Presidency College, Madras, to deliver the "Wilson Philological Lectures" for the year 1948-49. A course of about six lectures is to be given at Bombay and the honorarium attached to the work is Rs.750/- including travelling and halting expenses.

The Principal, Presidency College, Madras, considers that the work will not interfere with the legitimate duties of Sri V. K. Ayyappan Pillai as Professor of the College.

In the circumstances I recommend that Sri V. K. Ayyappan Pillai may be permitted to accept the invitation and to receive the honorarium.

Yours faithfully
