ENCLOSURES _____

SPARE COPIES _____

Marrappan, sweeper, Board High School, Satyamangalam was appointed as a part-time sweeper, to Board High School, Satyamangalam on a monthly remuneration of Rs.5/- only. On the reference received from the Headmaster, Board High School, Satyamangalam dated 19-6-46, Inspector of Municipal Councils and Local Boards, Madras was addressed in this office letter dated 6-8-46 for the conversion of the post of the part time sweeper in the school to a post of an additional watchman cum-sweeper on Rs.10/- Per mensem plus usual Dearness Allowance. Accordingly, sanction was accorded by the Inspector of Municipal Councils and Local Boards, Madras for a period of one year from the date of order, vide his proceedings L.Dis.26054/46 dated 30-8-46. But Dearness Allowance at the rate of Rs.16/- for the period of 6 months from 1-4-46 to 31-9-46 was drawn and paid to the sweeper, by the Headmaster wrongly anticipating the approval. Now the Audit Department has raised an objection on the excess payment of Dearness Allowance to the sweeper, without sanction of competent authority and points out that the amount of Rs.96/- paid to the sweeper may be recovered. Recovery is causing a great hardship now and the Headmaster recommends waiver of the recovery. The menial concerned is too poor to refund the excess paid. In view of subsequent sanction of the post to a full time one by the Inspector of Municipal Councils and Local Boards from the date of his order, the former payment may kindly be ratified by an order of Government waiving recovery, in order to answer the objection in Audit. I solicit an order of Government that the objection in audit will not be pursued.
