Roc.No.3351 C1/48 dated 13-3-1949.

Sir,

Sub: Madras Educational Service - Temporary appointment of Sri R.Athinatha Ayyar to the Madras Educational Service - Sanction to draw L.T.Pay - Requested.

In G.O.Ms.No.2785 Edn., dated 8-11-1948 Sri R.Athinatha Ayyar, Assistant Lecturer in History, was appointed to officiate temporarily as Lecturer in Economics in the Government College, Kumbakonam under rule 9(a)(i) of the General Rules for Provincial and subordinate services. He took charge of the post on 22-11-48 f.n. His substantive pay as Assistant Lecturer is Rs.240/- plus Rs.5 for L.T. or Rs.245 in all. The Accountant-General is reported to have fixed his officiating pay in the Madras Educational Service post at Rs.240/- a month with reference to rule 9(b) ibid, which lays down that a person appointed temporarily shall be paid either his substantive pay or the minimum of the scale of pay of the post whichever is higher. As the term "substantive pay" according to F.R.9(28) excludes special pay personal pay etc. the Accountant General, in fixing the officiating pay of the Lecturer in the M.E.S post, has disallowed the L.T.pay of Rs.5/- a month which is held to be in the nature of personal pay.

2. The temporary promotion of Sri R.Athinathan to the M.E.S. had led to a reduction of Rs.5/- in his emoluments. I submit that he should not be made to suffer financially on account of his promotion. Further the pay of Rs.5/- for L.Ts is a fixed addition to the scale of pay of Assistant Lecturers and Assistant Professors and like ordinary personal pay, it is not reduced or extinguished with the increase in their substantive pay. In the circumstances, I request that Government may kindly relax the relevant rules in favour of Sri R.Athinathan and permit him to draw the L.T. pay of Rs.5/- a month during the period when he officiated as Lecturer in Economics from 22-11-48 to 13-2-49.

3. In this connection I may point out that permanent Government servants promoted to higher posts under emergency provisions should be enabled to draw the pay of their substantive posts if it be higher than the minimum of the scale of pay of the higher post and that such promotion should not entail loss of special or personal pay attached to the substantive posts. If Government agree with this view, the term "pay of the substantive appointment" may be substituted for that of "substantive pay" occurring in Rules 9(b) and 31(f) of the General Rules.

Yours faithfully,

for Director of Public Instruction

KHR.15-3.
