On starred Question No.158.

Will the Hon'ble the Minister for Education be pleased to state:

- (a) the total number of compulsory elementary education centres (district-war);
- (b) the cost of midday meal at each centre when it was in force (district-war); and
- (c) the percentage of attendance when the midday meal was in force and the fall due to withdrawal of midday meals?

Draft Answer.

- (a) The Hon'ble Member is refd. to the statement appended to the Report on Public Education (for 1947-48) which gives particulars of the areas where the scheme of compulsory elementary ed. was introduced before 1.8.48. A statement containing the number of villages selected for compulsory information is laid on the table of the house.
- (b) and (c) The collection of particulars asked for will involve an amount of labour and correspondence, which, it is considered, would not be commensurate with the purpose in view.

ANSWER.

(a) The Hon'ble Member is referred to the statement appended to the Report on Public Instruction (for 1945-46) which gives particulars of the areas where the scheme of compulsory elementary education was introduced before 1st August 1945. A statement containing information regarding the number of villages selected for compulsion after 1st August 1945 is laid on the table of the house.

(b) and (c).

The collection of particulars asked for will involve an amount of labour and correspondence, which, it is considered, would not be commensurate with the purpose in view.
