Examinations - Departmental Tests - Special language Test for officers of the Education Department - Higher standard-

I am to invite attention to paragraph 2 of G.O. No. 804 Public (General) dated 1-4-1946 according to which the syllabus for the Special Language Test for officers of the Education Department, Higher standard prescribed in paragraph 1 of the G.O. is to be in force for a period of three years from December, 1946 to December 1949 and to enquire whether the syllabus will continue to be in force further after December, 1949. The Commission has to prescribe a fresh set of books for the test in consultation with the Director of Public Instruction, Madras for the next triennium commencing from 1950 and the information regarding the continuance of the syllabus is required before taking further steps in the matter.

Yours faithfully,

C. S. S. S.

Re.No.195 L4/49 dated 27-4-1949.

Sub: Special Language Test for Officers of the Education Department - Higher Standard - Syllabus.

Ref: (1) Govt.Memo No.4106 A/49-2 Edn., dated 17-2-1949.
(2) Govt.Endt. No.4106 A/49-4 Edn., dated 26-3-49.

I have the honour to state that generally, the books recommended for the Special language test for officers of the Educational Department (Higher standard), are of the same standard as those prescribed for the S.S.L.C. Examination in the corresponding languages.

The courses of study for secondary schools are under revision, and the first examination under the re-organised scheme will be held in 1951. The quantity of Prose and Poetry matter for detailed study, and whether the course will include text books for non-detailed study, have yet to be settled.

The question of prescribing fresh books for the examination under reference may, therefore, be deferred, and the books already prescribed, may be repeated for the examination of 1950.

The question of prescribing a new set of books may be taken up early next year.

Yours faithfully,
