Sub:--Madras Educational Rules--Recovery of stipends-
Ex-students of Government Training School,
Egmore.

Ref:--Your Pros. Roc.No.50 E3/49 dated 14-2-49

The four cases of defaulters of 1933-35 ex-students of the Government Training School, Egmore are the only cases still pending final orders. These cases were dealt along with the cases of 32 other defaulting ex-students in 1943 and consequent on further examination, piecemeal orders were obtained for writing off the irrecoverable stipends. These four cases were not included in the list of seven names for whom stipends were written off in your Proceedings Dis. No. 3699/48 dated 6-8-48 as per Government Memorandum No.26, Education, dated 20-7-48. Hence they had to be finally reported to you for writing off the stipends.

2. As regards the question of Departmental Officers having taken necessary action in time, I have to state that prompt action was taken by them to trace the whereabouts of the students but in vain. I enclose herewith a copy of Rc. No. 166/43 dated 14-4-48 of the Headmaster, Government Training School, Egmore already submitted to the Divisional Inspector of Schools in this Office Rc. No.84 B/43 dated 16-4-48 as called for in your Proceedings Rc. No.49 M/43 dated 29-3-48.

In these circumstances, I submit that the second point mentioned in your Proceedings quoted above does not arise.

3. I request that orders may kindly be passed to write off the stipends of the four ex-students under reference.

Ref:--Your Roc.No.84 B/43 dated 2-4-48.

The action against the defaulting ex-students of 1933-35 should have been taken after the lapse of 6 years i.e.) during 1941-42 The late Sri P. Ekantharanga Naidu was Headmaster of the School during that year and upto 27-5-43 on which date he died.

2. From the file of correspondence on the subject, it is seen that the first statement of ex-students whose stipends were recommended to be written off was submitted by him on 7-1-1943. Obviously, all the necessary correspondence about their whereabouts, etc., had been going on during the previous two years. Hence, it is submitted that the late Sri P. Ekantharanga Naidu does not seem to have failed to take necessary action. And in the subsequent years during which the file has been pending disposal, steps were being taken by his successors to trace the whereabouts of these 32 defaulters.
