R.Cl. No.2 L1/48 dated 22nd June 1948.

S i r,

Sub: MADRAS EDL. SERVICE - Women's Branch - Petition from Mrs. M. Parvathi Amma, School Assistant, Lady Willingdon Training College requesting to give her a post in the Madras Edl. Service either in the Collegiate Branch or in the Administrative Branch.

With reference to G.O.No.702 Education dated 30th March 1948, I have the honour to submit herewith a copy of petition from Mrs. M. Parvathi Amma, School Assistant, Lady Willingdon Training College, for favourable consideration of Government and to state as follows:-

In Govt. Memo No.8935 A.3 Edn., dated 4-5-1942, it was ordered that though the post of Lecturer in Mathematics, Queen Mary's College, is one to be filled eventually by a war service candidate, there is no objection to a regular appointment being made to it by transfer from the Educational Subordinate Service in the meanwhile. Accordingly, in G.O.No.1844 Edn., dated 29-12-1942, Mrs. M. Parvathi Amma, School Assistant, Lady Willingdon Training College was appointed to officiate as Lecturer in the Queen Mary's College, Madras. She continued in the post till 31st May 1948. As the post of Lecturer in Mathematics in the Queen Mary's College, Madras was reserved to be filled by a war service candidate, in G.O.No.702 Edn., dated 30th March 1948, Miss S. Pankajam, a war service candidate, selected by the Public Service Commission has been appointed as Lecturer in Mathematics in the Queen Mary's College, Madras reverting Mrs. M. Parvathi Amma as School Assistant, Lady Willingdon Training College, Madras in the Madras Educational Subordinate Service.

Since Mrs. M. Parvathi Amma has already completed her probation in the Madras Edl. Service as Lecturer in Mathematics and since I consider that it is unfair to place over her a direct (war service) recruit who will be in no way superior to her, I strongly recommend that the vacancy of the post of Lecturer in Mathematics in the Madras Edl. Service (Women's Branch) which was reserved to be filled in by a candidate with war service may be filled by transfer so that Mrs. M. Parvathi Amma may be continued as Lecturer in Mathematics, Queen Mary's College, Madras, and eventually confirmed in it.

I may perhaps be permitted to add that Miss S. Pankajam a war service candidate selected by the Public Service Commission for appointment as Lecturer in Mathematics, Queen Mary's College, Madras, was working as School Assistant under emergency powers in the Lady Willingdon Training College, Madras, recently and she has not got much experience in the teaching line. She is in no way better than Mrs. M. Parvathi Amma.
Hence, I recommend that Mrs. M. Parvathi Amma may be continued as Lecturer in Mathematics in the Queen Mary's College by de-reserving the post of Lecturer in Mathematics, in the Queen Mary's College. Otherwise, her request for a transfer to the administrative service is not unreasonable. While she was on other duty in the Madras Edl. Service as Lecturer in Mathematics, Queen Mary's College, Madras, her junior Mrs. L. Kamala Bai was promoted to the Madras Edl. Service in the administrative section.

Copy of petition dated 28-4-48 from Mrs. M. Parvathi Amma, M.A., L.T., Lecturer in Mathematics, Q.M.C., Madras to the Hon'ble Minister for Edn., Govt. of Madras, thro' the Director of Public Instruction, Madras, and thro' the Principal, Q.M.C., Madras.

I am a permanent School Assistant with 21 years of teaching experience. I entered service in June 1923 after passing the B.A. degree examination with Mathematics as my optional and worked for a year as Headmistress of Govt. Secondary school for girls, Salem. In July 1924, I joined the Post Graduate course. After passing the M.A. Degree examination, in Branch I, I joined the L.T. class. During the L.T. course, I was getting the deputation allowance of Rs.37/8/-. As advised by Miss Lowe (Deputy Directress) I joined duty as School Asst. again in the Govt. girls' high school, Salem without any break after the L.T. course in April 1928. I was confirmed on 1st August 1928. I worked as School Asst. in the Govt. girls' high school, Salem, Govt. Secy. and Trng. school, Vellore and Lady Willingdon Training college, Madras. In Lady Willingdon Trng. college, I was also part-time Lecturer in Mathematics to the L.T. students. I was promoted to the selection grade in June 1940.

In January 1943, I was selected by the services commission to the Madras Edl. Service and appointed as Lecturer in Mathematics, Queen Mary's College. The total period of my service in the department is 21 years, of which 20 years of service is continuous. I have put in 5 years 4 months service continuously in the M.E.S. I have also completed my probation satisfactorily.

When I was in the Salem school, I have been in charge whenever the Headmistress was absent. A reference to the history of my service prior to June 1936 will give the exact period during which I have been in charge.

During the war, I have done as much A.R.P. work and knitting as one in service could do. As per orders of the Principal, Lady Willingdon Training College, I remained in Madras till 11-4-42 when there was complete black-out. I was able to leave Madras only on 12-4-42, when there was a Government notification to evacuate.

In Queen Mary's College, Mathematics B.A. is to be started in July 1948 and I have done all the preliminary work necessary for the new course. Ever since my appointment in Q.M.C. I was trying through the Principal to introduce B.A. Mathematics. At last when in reality this higher course is to be started, the news of the appointment of Miss Pankajam as Lecturer in Mathematics has given me a severe blow. I will be greatly disappointed if I am disturbed from my present post without giving me a chance to teach the subject that I love so much.

Throughout my service, I have tried to do whatever was entrusted to me to the satisfaction of the officers under whom I worked.

Though Miss Pankajam has been selected to the post of Lecturer in Mathematics, Q.M.C. which post I am holding now, I have not received intimation about my posting.

After having completed my probation satisfactorily and put in a service of 5 years 4 months in the M.E.S., it will be a great blow to me to revert to the S.E.S.

Considering my services in the department and in the M.E.S. I request you to give me a post in the M.E.S. in the Collegiate Branch. If this is not possible, I request you to transfer me to the administrative branch in the M.E.S.

I shall ever remain grateful to you for this act of kindness.

Submitted for sympathetic consideration.

The Govt. decline to accept the recommendation made in para 3 and the first part of para 4 of the letter cited. // The Govt. have, however, decided to comply with the request of Mrs.M.Parvathi Amma for her transfer to the Administrative Secn. of the MES and to relax rule 2(a)(c) and (d) of the Spl.Rules for the Service in her favour with a view to that transfer. They have also decided to assign her seniority so far as the Administrative Secn. is concerned only just above Mrs.L.Kamala Bai/- without allowing the date of her appt. as Lecturer in the Collegiate Secn. to count for seniority in the Administrative Secn. also under the first sentence of General rule 29(c). // The DPI is requested to send to Govt. at an early date

With reference to Government Memorandum cited above, I have the honour to report that there is no vacant post now in the Administrative section to which Mrs. M. Parvathi Amma can be appointed. Mrs. V. Chellammal who is her senior and now under reversion to the Subordinate Educational Service should be provided first.
Then only the question of Mrs. M. Parvathi Amma will come in.
Therefore, the proposals as to the post in the Administrative Section to which Mrs. M. Parvathi Amma should be transferred will be submitted when a vacancy arises after the absorption of Mrs. V.
Chellammal in the Madras Educational Service.

Appointment as Lecturer in Mathematics, Lady Willingdon

2) G.O.MS. No.962 Education dated 2nd April 1949.

In G.O.MS.No.962 Education dated 2-4-1949 it has been ordered that the post of Assistant Lecturer in Mathematics in the Lady Willingdon Training College, Madras be converted into a Lecturer's post in the Madras Educational Service with effect from July 1949. An experienced officer is required to fill the vacancy. Hence I recommend that Mrs. M. Parvathi Ammal who had already completed her probation in the Madras Educational Service as Lecturer in Mathematics and now under reversion as School Assistant in the Lady Willingdon Training College may be appointed and promoted as Lecturer in Mathematics in the Lady Willingdon Training College in the newly sanctioned post with effect from 1st July 1949. Since there is no immediate necessity for her appointment to the Administrative section and as her services are needed in the Collegiate section her name need not be considered for appointment to the administrative section at present, as already ordered in the Government Confidential Memorandum No.46886-A.2 Edn.dated 5-10-1948.

M.E.S. - Mrs.M.Parvathi Amma, School Asst. - Representation against reversion from Lecturer's therein was reserved in 1944 for being filled by direct recruitment, by a candidate who had rendered war service. Pending the recruitment of such a candidate, Mrs.M.Parvathi Amma, School Asst., was apptd. to it, by transfer from the Subordinate Service.

(Papers in

Last year, the Commission selected Miss S.Pankajam, a war service candidate, for the post, and the Govt. approved of the selection. On the recommendation of the D.P.I., she was apptd. to the service from June 1948, reverting Mrs.
Parvathi Amma. Against that recruitment, Mrs.Parvathi Amma has now put in a representation. The D.P.I. strongly recommends that the vacancy may be dereserved and may be ordered to be filled by recruitment by transfer so that Mrs. Parvathi Amma may be continued therein and eventually confirmed. It is too late a stage now even to 'consider' such a recommendation. Already, by the Govt.'s orders dereserving 33-1/3% of the reserved vacancies for civilians, the benefit to war service candidate had got reduced. When, ~~xxx~~ to a vacancy which fell within the 66-2/3% quota, the Commission has selected a candidate as suitable and the Govt., approving of the selection, have ~~xxx~~ apptd. the candidate and the candidate has ^{also} apparently joined duty, it would not be justifiable, and also not permissible, to ~~xxx~~ act upon the D.P.I.'s recommendation. The reasons given at R at p.1 C.F. are not quite germane in the context. The Govt. may decline to accept the recommendation.

2. But, Mrs.Parvathi Amma's alternative request for ^{transfer} ~~appt.~~ to the Administrative Secn. of the M.E.S. (as Supdt. of a Govt. Trg. or Secy. School or Inspectress of Girls' Schools) - which the D.P.I. characterises ^{as} not unreasonable - deserves compliance. She is a permanent School Asst. and is eligible for recruitment by transfer to the Adm. Secn. of the

From the D.P.I., No.21-L1/C1/48, dated 13-5-49. cf. b

Mrs.M.Parvathi Amma is a permanent School Assistant in the M.E.S.S. In 1941, she was promoted as Lecturer in Mathematics in the M.E.S.—Collegiate Section. The vacancy having been reserved for a person who had rendered war service, Mrs. Parvathi's appointment thereto was a tempy. one pending the appointment of a war service candidate. Last year, such a candidate, Miss S.Pankajam, was selected and apptd. to the vacancy. Mrs.Parvathi had to give place to that candidate and therefore reverted to the Subordinate Service. However, the question of providing her with an alternative M.E.S. pp. 1-5 and post in the Administrative Section, was considered. The decision arrived at was that, by a relaxation of the rules, she should be transferred to the Administrative Section, as an Inspectress of Girls' Schools or as a Supdt. in the vacancy arising soon after the promotion to that section of her immediate senior in the School Assistants' category. But, such a turn for her has not arisen so far. In the meantime, an additional tempy. post of Lecturer in Maths. has been created in the Lady Willingdon Trg. College, with effect from July 1949. To this, Mrs.Parvathi, being already an approved probationer in the cf. b Lecturers' category, should be re-appointed. The D.P.I. recommends the re-appointment. The necessity to post Mrs.Parvathi to the Administrative Section has been obviated.

A draft order accepting the Dir.'s recommendation is subd. May be circd. to H.M.(Edn.) for approval.
