Sub Forms - T&A 11B- Supply of.

1,70,000 copies of T&A 11B (Nearly half of the total quantity) have been printed in red ink by oversight. To avoid the unnecessary wastage of paper and reprinting charges etc., it is suggested that these forms be used as they are (printed in red ink) and supplied to the respective officers whose indents are pending and utilised to the best of advantage. If this could not be used with the print in red ink, it is alternatively suggested that these forms be supplied to the indenting officers for 1950 to use them in the place of T & A 12B with a slight alteration vide specimen "A" attached. The alteration can be effected by pasting a printed slip "Not payable at the Treasury" where the heading of T&A 11B exists. This would involve reprinting of the wrongly printed form to the required number converted into T&A 12B.

Please offer your early remarks so as to enable me to proceed further.

Sub: Use of T & A. 11-B. forms printed in ~~red~~ red ink by oversight.
C.No. 42304/49.
Ref: From the A.G. No T. M. 15-379 dated 27.5.49.

The Superintendent Govt. Press has stated in his letter to the A.G. 24.5.49 that 1,70,000 copies of T & A 11-B. have been printed in red ink by oversight and has requested that, if there is no objection, these forms may be used as they are and supplied to the officers, to avoid unnecessary wastage of paper and printing charges. The Accountant General has replied to the S.G.P. that he has no objection to the use of the forms as printed in red ink and has however referred the matter to Govt. for information and necessary orders.

2 In view of the large wastage of printing charges and paper that will be involved in reprinting all the forms again, Govt. may also agree to the use of the forms as printed in red ink until the forms already printed are exhausted.

3 A draft order is subd. for approval. Finance may be seen before issue.
