PREMIER'S VISIT TO BORDER AREAS.

X X X

After inspecting the local Government Hospital, Mr. Ramaswami Reddiar, stressed the oneness of South Indian cultures, as all the 5 languages in vogue here emanated from one source. Too much of emphasis on the diversities of caste and language and too little attention to the essential unity of Indian culture had become the bane of public life, especially after the achievement of independence. Even after the formation of linguistic provinces, all Indians should unite. But separation would involve more expenditure by way of salaries to officers. At present, as much as 30 crores out of the total revenue of Rs.40 crores were spent on salaries of services. More strain would be imposed on the ~~public~~ public revenues by the creation of linguistic provinces. While on the one hand, small States were forming themselves into big blocs, was it not a negation of the principle, if the present Provinces were dismembered ~~with~~ into small linguistic zones? The linguistic agitation was due to the urge for a few more posts ² Ministers and Governors.

After explaining the significance of the constructive programme, the Premier spoke on prohibition. He warned all offenders whether officials or non-officials that they would be punished. He was considering the levy of a punitive tax in places where prohibition was not a success and increasing the severity of punishment to durnkenness. He hoped that he would not be put to that necessity.

Mr. Sitamara Reddy, Minister, reminded the gathering of the ~~martial~~ martial heritage of their Vijayanagar Empire ~~with~~ and exhorted them to face the Hyderabad problem with equanimity.

MUSLIMS' DEPUTATION.

Muslims of Hospet led by Mr. K. Shah Ahmed Sahab, Municipal Councillor, waited ~~a~~ in dputation on the Premier. They expressed comradeship with the Hindu residents of the area. The Premier assured them that the Government's ~~policy~~ policy was non-communal. But he added, the sins of some w in a group might at times be visited on all in the group.
