42742 Sir,

Subject: Request for lending the services of a School Assistant.

Sri M. Arunachalam, Headmaster of our Training School has started a Basic School in his own native village and consequently he has resigned his headmastership. We have at present no other Basic Trained graduate teacher who can fill in his place. It will take some time before we can depute a competent graduate teacher to Sevagram and get him trained.

Therefore as a temporary measure, we require the services of a Government servant who is a graduate teacher trained in Basic Education, on conditions that usually apply to officers lent on foreign service. I understand that Smt. Rajalakshmi, Assistant, Basic Training School for Women at Cuddalore, is willing to take up work in our Basic Training School, if deputed by Government.

Therefore I request you to be so good as to lend the services of Smt. Rajalakshmi for a period of ten months from 15th June 1949.

I am,
Yours sincerely,

R. Vinayakam Pillai
