Examinations--Departmental Tests--Deputy Inspectors' Test--High percentage of failures--Amendments to the syllabus--Your post copy of telephonic message dated 20.4.1949.

I am to say that the draft amendment to the rules relating to the Deputy Inspectors' Test as suggested in your letter to the Government (copy sent to the Commission) has not yet been referred to the Commission by the Government. As the amendment has not yet been issued and as the examinations will take place in June 1949, for which the last date for receipt of applications was 23.3.1949, the amendment can take effect only from the examination to be held in June 1949 so that those who fail to get the minimum in any subject in June 1949 may appear in that subject alone in December 1949.
