Returned with the following remarks. -

2. The officer officiated as lecturer, Queen Mary's College, Madras from 29-11-46 to 29-5-48 when she was transferred to Foreign Service. There is no provision in the Service Rules to count the period of Foreign Service for purpose of probation in the post of lecturer. It is certified that the officer would have continued to officiate as lecturer but for this interruption and if the relevant service rule is relaxed in favour of Mrs. G. Parthasarathy to enable her to count the period of Foreign Service for purpose of probation in the post of lecturer, she would have put in two years of service (duty under Government and foreign service) within a continuous period of three years on the afternoon of 28th November 1948.

Sir,

Sub: Madras Educational Service - Mrs. G.Parthasarathi
Officiating Lecturer in Foreign Service - Probation.

REF: Government Memorandum No.26047-A2-Edn.dated 4-5-49.

With reference to your communication cited above, I have the honour to state that Mrs. G. Parthasarathi, Principal, Ethiraj College for women, Madras would have continued to officiate as Lecturer in English in the Madras Educational Service but for her appointment in the Ethiraj College. As Principal she was actually holding a post which was even more responsible than the one ~~should~~ would have held if she had continued. Hence, with reference to F.R.113 I recommend that her foreign service as Principal in the Ethiraj College for women may be counted - towards her probation.

Yours faithfully,
