R.O.C. No. 7385-1/46

dated 2-6-1949.

Sub: War - Maps of Burma Front and of Eastern Theatre - Request for incurring expenditure on unsold copies and on postage and cooly charges.

43426

I request that I may be permitted to incur an expenditure of Rs.94-14-0 from the allotment available under books and maps for this office to enable me to pay the same to Messrs. Oxford University Press, Madras, in full settlement of a bill long pending payment. The case is briefly as follows:-

The Assistant Educational Adviser, Department of Education, Government of India brought to my notice the existence of war ^{maps} of the Burma Front and of the Eastern Theatre in July 1946 and requested me to sell them to the Schools at 0-1-6 each. Thereupon I called for indents from my subordinate officers and eventually obtained 3181 copies of the former and 3311 copies of the latter and distributed them to the subordinate officers with instructions to remit the cost of the books to Messrs. Oxford University Press, Madras, who obtained them from the Government of India and supplied them to me. The Government of India had collected the cost of these Maps from the company. But I found that as many as 339 copies of both the maps could not be sold by the subordinate officers as the interest in these maps had been lost since the termination of the war. As Messrs. Oxford University Press had already paid for the maps and had undertaken the work only as an obligation and not for profit they cannot be asked to take the maps back. It appears therefore necessary for me to pay for these unsold copies of the maps. The unsold copies number 339 and their cost works out to Rs.31-10-6 at 0-1-6 a copy.

Besides the cost of these maps, Messrs. Oxford University Press have incurred an expenditure of Rs.63-3-0 towards postage and cooly charges on the whole and this amount has also to be paid to them by me.

The balance due to them therefore comes to Rs.94-14-0 and I request that I may be permitted to incur the expenditure.
The favour of early orders is solicited.

Yours faithfully,

K. Subramanian

for Director of Public Instruction.
