No. 0017/43/34/49 of 11 July '49

Sub: National Cadet Corps - Senior Division - Uniforms for cadets supplied by the Ordnance Depots - Fitting charges - sanctioned.

Ref: Your G.O. Ms. No. 2191 Edn dated 7th July '49

The amount sanctioned in your above quoted G.O. for incurring the expenditure towards fitting charges, is very very inadequate

The sizes of the dress that have received by this unit are such, that a complete alteration is essential before they can be fitted to the cadets. Obviously for Rs. 3/- per trousers and bush shirt, no tailor has come forward to undertake the job. I have personally consulted a few of the local tailors and these rates ranged from Rs. 2-4-0 to Rs. 3/-. Personally, I think in view of the job the tailors have got to do, a minimum of Rs. 2/- per suit may reasonably be paid and I recommend that the expenditure on the following head may please be amended.

Failing which, it is very regretted that the work cannot be entrusted to any tailor in view of the low remuneration involved.

Yours faithfully,

like to point out that each cadet is authorised to have TWO suits ie. Two Bush coats and 2 Full pants. At the rate of suggested in my letter, the alteration charges of the suits of 3rd Madras Engr. Pl.
