To

The Secretary to Government of Madras,
Education & Public Health Department,
Fort St. George, MADRAS.

Sir,

I have the honour to state that consequent on the resignation of Mrs. G. Parthasarathy, Chairman of the English Sub-Committee of the Text-Book Committee, Dr. Miss. J. F. Forrester, St. Christopher's Training College, Vepery, Madras, has been appointed in the vacancy with reference to G.O.Ms.No.2124 Edn., dated 2nd July, 1949, to dispose of English books written as per finalised syllabuses received for the consideration by the Text-Book Committee.

It was observed that two English books written by her and mentioned in the annexure have been received for consideration by the Text-Book Committee.

Under Rule 56 (a) and (b) of the Text-Book Committee rules these books cannot be considered by the Text-Book Committee, during her membership. However, as she had written these books and entered into contract to write further books in the same series prior to her appointment to the Text-Book Committee, I recommend that Government may be pleased to exempt as a special case, from the operation of Rule 56 (a) and (b) of the Text-Book Committee rules, the two English books (mentioned in the annexure) and their subsequent series. In anticipation of Government's approval of the above recommendation, ~~which was~~ the name of the first book based upon the revised syllabus in English for Secondary Schools, which was provisionally approved by the Text-Book Committee, has been included in the list of approved books notified in the Fort St. George Gazette, on 12th July, 1949.

In this connection, attention is invited to the orders issued by the Government in G.O.Ms.No. 142 Education, dated 20th January, 1948 in a similar case.

I may add, in this connection, that care has been taken to see that the member has no hand in the consideration and approval of the books except a formal way at the general meeting of the Text-Book Committee.
