Copy of letter No. 2264, dated 1/9/48 from the Librarian, East Punjab University, U.S. Club, Simla, to the Curator, Government Oriental Manuscripts Library, Madras.

Dear Sir,

Consequent upon the partition of the country, the Library of the newly created University of the East Punjab has been established provisionally at the address given above.

The Library is required to cater for the varied book needs of the various departments of the University which are dispersed in different places in the province owing to lack of accommodation, but will be brought together finally when the University has a permanent house of its own.

The task of the Library has become difficult as we are not able to bring our own share of assets in form of books or cash from the University Library at Lahore.

The Library at Lahore, as you know, was one of the largest in the country and besides contained no fewer than 20 thousand manuscripts.

You were kind enough to send us free at Lahore the Descriptive Catalogue as well as the Triennial Catalogues of the Government Oriental Manuscripts Library, Madras. Will you be kind enough to send us a copy of each of the catalogue to date to enable us to help our scholars.

I may add for your information that we have just received gratis a copy of a descriptive catalogue of the Sanskrit manuscripts in the Government Oriental Manuscripts Library, Madras, Vol. 30 from the Government press. R.A.S. of Bengal has very kindly presented us books worth of Rs. 640/-

Trusting that the request will be considered favourably.
