R.O.C. No. 2370 C3/50 Dated 18-1-1951.

Sir,

Subject:-

Madras Educational Subordinate Service- Recruitment to posts of Assistant Lecturers- Relaxation of age rules in favour of certain candidates.

Ref:- Government Memo No. 29698-1/50-A Edn. dated 20-11-50.

1. With reference to Government Memo quoted above, I may state as follows:-

At present, there is no vacancy for a direct recruit, for the post of Assistant Lecturer in Malayalam and in the estimate of vacancies furnished to the Madras Public Service Commission on 1-12-1950, no candidate is required to be recruited against the subject, Malayalam. Sri. Chandukutty possess the degree of B.O.L. He secured a third class under Part I, II class in Malayalam under Part II and Part III is not classified. He is an approved probationer in the category of Malayalam Pandits, and promoted as Assistant Lecturer in Malayalam under the emergency provisions in the Rules with effect from 22-8-1947. In view of Government Memo No. 72406 A/47-13 Edn. dated 25-9-1950 treating I or II class either under part II or Part III of the degree of B.O.L. of the University of Madras as equivalent to the first or second class degree of M.A. or B.A. (Hons) of a University in the State of Madras for purposes of recruitment to the posts of Assistant Lecturers in languages other than English in the Madras Educational Subordinate Service, the temporary promotion of Sri. P. Chandukutty as Assistant Lecturer in Malayalam is being regularised with effect from 25-9-1950 (the date of the above Government Memo). In view of this, the question of relaxation of age rule in favour of Sri. Chandukutty does not arise now.

2. Sri. K. Ganapathy Sarma who is now working as Assistant Lecturer in Hindi, Government Arts College, Madras under the emergency provisions in the Rules with effect from 5-7-48 is an approved probationer in the category of Hindi Pandits Grade III.
He possesses the degree of B.O.L. II class in Part II.

As he is now fully qualified with reference to Government Memo referred to above Sri. K. Ganapathy Sarma's temporary provision is being regularised with effect from 25-9-1950. The question of relaxation of age rule in his favour does not therefore arise.

3. Sri. M. Ramakrishna Sastry is now working as Kannada Pandit, Presidency College, Madras. At present there is no vacancy of a direct recruit for the post of Assistant Lecturer in Kannada and in the estimate of vacancies furnished to the Madras Public Service Commission on 1-12-1950 no candidate is required to be recruited against the subject, Kannada.

It may be pointed out here that Sri. P. Padmanaba Bhat is now working as Assistant Lecturer in Kannada under the emergency

ROC.NO. 2370 C3/50 dt. 24.2.51.

Subj:-Madras Educational Subordinate Service Recruitment to posts of Assistant Lecturers--Relaxation of age rule in favour of certain candidates.

Ref:-Government Memo.No.29698-4/50A Edn. dt. 3.2.51.

With reference to Government Memo.cited, I am to state that while submitting the estimate of vacancies to the commission in November 48, two vacancies which were held by the emergency candidates and one leave vacancy were taken into account for the 3 posts of Assistant Lecturers in Kannada. The Madras Public Service Commission recruited one candidate for appointment as Assistant Lecturer in Kannada, and he was appointed to the leave vacancy. In view of Government Memo. No.72406 A/47-13 Edn. dt. 25.9.50, one of the emergency candidates working as temporary assistant Lecturer in Kannada became qualified for the post and his services are being regularised. Consequent on the closure of the pandits' Training class in April, 1949, one post of Assistant Lecturer in Kannada was abolished. Thus the third vacancy ceased to exist.

Yours faithfully,
