*****

The scheme relating to the Lord Pentland Prize Endowment Fund was settled in G.O. No.1283 H.E. dated 23-10-1919. According to this G.O. the scheme should be administered by the Inspectress for the time being of the Girls' Schools, Central Circle, and the Superintendent for the time being of the Govt. Secondary & Training School for Mistresses at Triplicane. Consequent on the recent reorganisation of the women inspectorate, the Inspectress of Girls' Schools who has jurisdiction over Madras is the Inspectress, III Circle. The Training School at Triplicane is now attached to the Lady Willingdon Training College for Women. The expression 'The Inspectress for the time being of the Girls' Schools, III Circle, Madras, and the Principal for the time being Lady Willingdon Training College, Madras,' may be substituted for the expression - 'The Inspectresses for the time being of the Girls' Schools, Central Circle, and the Superintendent for the time being of the Govt. Secondary & Training School for Mistresses' occurring in Rule 1 of the second Notification issued with the G.O. cited above. I request that the Government may be pleased to amend the scheme suitably.

Yours faithfully,

K. S. Srinivasan
For Director of Public Instruction.
