From

THE REGISTRAR,
UNIVERSITY OF MADRAS,

To

THE SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS,
EDUCATION AND PUBLIC HEALTH DEPARTMENT,
FORT ST. GEORGE, MADRAS.

Sir,

In connection with the conduct of the Certificate and Diploma courses in Anthropology by the University, the Syndicate considered the arrangement for the special lectures to be delivered in Anatomy and Pre-Historic Archaeology as was done during 1948-49 and has resolved that Dr.A. Anantanarayanan, Professor of Anatomy, Madras Medical College and Dr.A.Aiyappan, Superintendent, Government Museum, Madras be appointed part-time Lecturers for 1949-50 to deliver a course of lectures in the respective subjects. They will be required to deliver about 12 lectures each. These persons were appointed last year for the similar purpose and they conducted the classes. An honorarium of Rs.20/- per lecture will be paid to them.

It is only with the cooperation of the Museum authorities that this course could be made more effective and useful and I have to request, as in last year, that the Superintendent of the museum be permitted to accept the appointment to deliver the course of lectures and to give all facilities to the students for the courses to visit the museum as often as is necessary. The lecturers may have to conduct ~~in~~ some classes at the museum itself.

The Professor of Anatomy may also be permitted to undertake to deliver the required lectures in his subject.

I request that early orders of Government be obtained and communicated.

Yours faithfully,

R.R. Sundaram
