Fort St.George, Madras.

Sir,

Sub: EQUIPMENT - N.C.C.

I have the honour to inform you that as per N.C.C. letter No.0010/49/NCC dated 27-4-49, it is seen that all repairs and maintenance of equipments are the responsibility of the Government of India as they seem to continue to be the property of the Government of India. This raises the following doubts:-

- M.T.
 - Repairs and maintenance of the trucks.- if trucks are to be repaired by Army Workshops.
 - Source of supply of POL.
 - subject to inspection by IEME.
 - Issue of spare parts, replacement etc.
- ARMS.
 - Repair of Arms.
 - Supply of component parts.
 - Maintenance of arms.
- AMMUNITION. (Procedure for indenting, disposal of fired cases and lead.)

The doubts arise specially in view of G.O.No.1606 dated 17-5-49 where budget allotment has been made for some of the items mentioned above, such as cleaning materials, servicing of trucks, ammunition etc.

It is presumed that the ledgers in respect of all the items of equipment are to be maintained on the Army standard and subject to audit and directions by the Army authorities. This refers to your letter No.6522-B1/49-3 Edn dated 12-3-49 and N.C.C.Director letter No.0010/49/NCC dated 10-5-49, copy enclosed.

An early clarification will be greatly appreciated.

Yours faithfully,

Major,
Commanding, 2nd Madras Bn.N.C.C.

A copy of Government of India letter No.0010/49/NCC dated 27 April 1949 addressed to Provincial Governments etc. is forwarded.

2. Ledgers for Equipment, which includes all items issued by Ordnance, will be maintained as laid down in Equipment Regulations. They are liable to be audited by L.A.Os. Ledger for clothing will also be maintained. Vehicle registers will also be maintained.

3. L.Os will maintain one Central Ledger and items issued to Units will be vouchered to the Headmaster of the School in which the unit or sub-unit is located - separate ledgers for clothing and equipment.

4. If you have any doubts of what you have to do, contact the nearest Army unit or Sub-Area HQ. Ensure that your clerk understands his job also.
