Department, Fort St. George,

R.C.No.17-N/49 dated 23rd July 1949.

Sir,

Sub:- Libraries-Training in Diploma Course in Library Science in the Madras University-Deputation of candidates for 1949-50- Creation of four temporary posts of Librarians.
Ref:- G.O.Ms.No.2337, Education, dated 19th July 1949. (A)/2-3

In the Government Order under reference, sanction has been accorded to the creation of four temporary posts of Librarians for a period of one year. As the Government Order is dated 19-7-1949, it would appear that the above posts could be created only from that date. But as the Diploma Course in Library Science at the Madras University commenced from 18-7-1949, instructions were given to the four candidates selected by me to join the class on that very day. Accordingly, three of them reported themselves before the Librarian of the University Library, Madras on 18-7-1949 itself. The report regarding the date on which the fourth candidate joined the course is awaited. In the circumstances I request that Government may be pleased to sanction the creation of the above four posts from 18-7-1949 and also approve of my action in having selected and deputed the four candidates in anticipation of Government's approval.

2. In my letter Rc.No.17-N/49 dated 4-7-1949, provision was requested at the rate of Rs.70/- for each candidate under the head "Text-books and Stationery". It is presumed that the sanction accorded is in respect of each candidate.

3. The following draft amendment to the ad hoc rules issued with G.O.No.1419, Education dated 6-5-1949 is suggested.

In para 7 of the rules, the words "Or Madras" may be added between the words "Delhi" and "University". The rule amended will be as follows:-

"Rule 7: A person appointed to any of the posts shall, within the period of his or her probation, undergo at Government cost the course of instruction for the Diploma in Library Science of the Delhi or Madras University and obtain the said Diploma."

4. The particulars called for in para 3 of the Government Order in respect of the candidates selected for training will be submitted shortly.

Yours faithfully,

R. Jannadhana

For Director of Public Instruction.
