Dear Sir,

I am writing to request you to place "INDIAN REPUBLIC", a daily English newspaper; published by the Subhodaya Publications, Ltd., Madras., 6. on the Government's list for the free supply of the Official Publications of the Government of Madras published and issued by the Superintendent of the Government Press, Madras.

"INDIAN REPUBLIC" was started about a month back and is rapidly gaining in circulation. It has already been placed by the Government in the list for the supply of Official Communiques and Press Notes. What I am requesting you, therefore, is only to extend to "INDIAN REPUBLIC" the facilities which are available to the other English newspapers in the city. I hope an early decision on the subject will be taken and necessary instructions ~~will~~ issued to the Superintendent, Government Press, for including "INDIAN REPUBLIC" in the distribution list for the Official Publications.

Thanking you,

Yours faithfully,
