Re.No.1217 K2/49 dated 22-8-49

Sir,

Sub:- Colleges - Queen Mary's College, Madras - Employment of an additional Gasman -

The Principal, Queen Mary's College, Madras, has been pressing for the employment of an additional Gasman for the College stating that the existing one is not able to cope with the work consequent on the increase in the strength of Chemistry classes from 120 in the past to over 300 at present. This increase has entailed in the conduct of practical classes in more batches, resulting in the consumption of more gas. Further B.Sc. courses also have been opened in the current year. It is reported that the job of gasman is risky, requiring skill and experience and that it is beyond the ability of the existing single gasman to manage the heavy work. In view of the urgent need for another gasman in the College I request sanction for an additional post of Gasman for the College from the current year.

Yours faithfully,

For Director of Public Instruction
