pp15-17/⊗ clause 6, p16/⊗ According to the terms of the notification issued with G.O. Ms. No. 102 Edn. dated 23-1-45, settling the scheme for the administration of 'The Kasturi Ranga Ayyangar Scholarship Endowment Fund' the scholarship should be awarded to that student of the III year class of the B.A. (Pass) B.Sc. (Pass) B.A.(Hons.) or B.Sc.(Hons.) course in the Presidency College, Madras, who, having passed the Inter Examination, from the said college, is considered by the administrator on grounds of both poverty and merit to be deserving of the scholarship. From this, it will be seen that only those students who pass the Inter Examination from the Presidency College are eligible for the above scholarship. Now that the Inter classes in the Presidency College have ceased to run, Sri K. Srinivasan, donor of the above scholarship Endowment Fund requests that the original scheme might be amended suitably so as to enable the scholarship to be awarded to the most deserving students of the Presidency College, irrespective of where they took their Inter Course or what subjects they choose to study at Presidency College for their higher course.

below A copy of the donor's letter is enclosed. The Principal, Presidency College, Madras supports the request of the Donor.

p16/⊗ Under the circumstances I request that Government may be pleased to approve the draft notification modifying the clause 6 of the existing scheme, which is prepared by the Government Solicitor, Madras and issue necessary notification in this behalf.

Yours faithfully,

Sir,

Sub:-Endowments - Charitable - Kasturi Ranga Ayyangar Scholarship Endowment Fund - Raising the investment to yield an interest of Rs.240/- per annum.

The Scheme relating to the administration of the Kasturi Ranga Ayyangar Scholarship Endowment Fund at Madras was approved in G.O. No. (Ms.) 102, Education, dated 23rd January 1945 as amended in G.O. Ms. No. 2922, Education and Public Health, dated 19th September 1949. The fund stands invested in the 3% Government of India, Conversion Loan, 1946 to the face value of Rs.6,000/- and is included in the consolidated stock held by the Treasurer of Charitable Endowments, Madras. The annual income from the fund is Rs.180/- and the endowment is administered by the Principal, Presidency College, Madras. The proprietors of the "Hindu" the donors of the Kasturi Ranga Ayyangar Scholarship Endowment fund addressed the Administrator to arrange with the Treasurer of Charitable Endowments for the return of the Securities relating to the above Endowment duly endorsed in favour of Mr. G. Narasimhan, Manager, the "Hindu" and agreeing on receipt thereof to replace them with bonds fetching a return of Rs.240/- per annum.
To a reference received from the Principal, Presidency College, Madras, regarding the above, it was replied that it would not be permissible to return the Securities and it was also suggested that additional Securities fetching an annual interest of Rs.60/- may be invested with the Treasurer of Charitable Endowments, if it was proposed to raise the amount of the investment.
The Administrator now enquires again whether it would be possible to return the Securities if the donors forward alternate Securities yielding an annual income of Rs.240/-. A copy of the correspondence with the Principal, Presidency College, on the subject is enclosed for perusal and issue of orders on the request of the donors conveyed through the Administrator.
There seems to be no objection to return the present securities as soon as fresh securities promised are received.
