SANSKRIT MANUSCRIPTS- CATALOGUES- LIST OF PERSONS AND INSTITUTIONS INTERESTED- SUPPLY FREE OR AT CONCESSIONAL RATES.

Sir,

I am directed to refer to the correspondence ending with your letter No. * dated * and to state after carefully considering the views of various authorities the Government of India have decided that catalogues of Sanskrit Manuscripts should ordinarily be treated as priced publications, placed on sale and that their price should be fixed in consultation with the Superintendent of the Government ~~of~~ press concerned. Like other publications they should be advertised for sale in and outside India at the ordinary published price.

2. As a result of the suggestions made by the different authorities concerned the list of persons and institutions interested in Sanskrit learning to whom the catalogues of Sanskrit manuscripts are supplied free of cost has been revised and divided into two parts. The first part for the names ~~xxx~~ of persons and institutions who should be supplied with these catalogues free of charge and the other of those who should receive them at the concessional rates, (i.e. at the ordinary published rates, less 25 per cent discount. Copies of the revised list are forwarded herewith for the information of the your ~~xxxx~~ information.

Government of Madras etc.

Bombay

3. I am to suggest that before issuing the catalogues to the persons and institutions included in the concessional supply list they should be consulted whether they are willing to receive them at these rates and if they agree the catalogues may be supplied to them accordingly. Should persons and institutions in and outside India whose names have been deleted from the old list of 1933 desire to purchase the catalogues at concessional rates their request may also be complied with if possible.

4. With reference to the publications referred to in Paragraphs 2 and 3 of your letter I am to suggest that the persons and institutions mentioned in the revised list should be consulted by the Government of the United Provinces direct in the matter.
