Sir,

Rules - Madras Educational Service - Kindergarten Lecturer - Qualifications - Amendment to Special Rules - Your letter No. 3393-A.4, dated 18-5-1948.

I am to say that the Commission has the following remarks to offer on the draft amendment.--

(1) One of the qualifications proposed is a First or/Class degree of M.A. or B.A.(Hons.) in Psychology of any Indian or Foreign University. The Madras, Andhra and Annamalai Universities do not award the M.A. or B.A.(Hons.) degree in Psychology as such. They award such degree in Philosophy, and Psychology is one of the subjects which may be taken for that degree course. Draft amendment (1) may therefore be recast as follows.--

"(1) A first or second class degree of M.A. or B.A.(Hons.) with Psychology as one of the subjects, of any Indian or Foreign University and a degree or diploma in teaching with "Child Education" as one of the subjects.

(2) In her letter No.101/47-A, dated 18-3-1947, the Principal, Lady Willingdon Training College, Madras, suggested that the candidate must know Tamil and / or Telugu. Rule 6(b) of the Special Rules for the Madras Educational Service prescribes that the candidate's mother-tongue should be Tamil. If the Government see no objection, this rule may be amended so as to include Telugu as an alternative language so that the candidate's mother-tongue may be either Tamil or Telugu.

Yours faithfully;

Secretary.

With reference to the communication cited above, I have the honour to state that if the Madras and Andhra Universities do not have degrees in Psychology other Universities may have and in so far as the graduates of the Foreign Universities have not been excluded it is better to retain Psychology in addition to Philosophy. Hence I suggest that the qualification may be slightly modified as:-

"A first or second class degree of M.A. or B.A. (Hons) in Psychology or in Philosophy with Psychology as one of the subjects, of any Indian or Foreign University and a degree or diploma in teaching with "Child Education" as one of the subjects".

2. I also suggest that Rule 6(b) of the Special Rules for the Madras Educational Service may be amended as follows:-

"No person whose mother tongue is not either Tamil or Telugu shall be eligible for appointment to the Service as Kindergarten Lecturers".

Yours faithfully,

Consequent on the amendment of the Special Rules for the M.E.S. by G.O. 2130-Dr. dt- 29.9.48, the suggestion in para 2 of the letter cited cannot be adopted as it is. Please say whether a proviso to rule 6(b) may be added to the effect: that for appl. as Kindergarten Lecturer it will be sufficient if the mother-tongue of the person is either Tamil or Telugu, or if she has studied either of those languages as part of her Univ. Course.

2. Also say ~~whether~~ <sup>why, since apparently</sup> the term "a degree with Psychology as one of the subjects" wd. include "a degree in Psychology" as well as "a degree in Philosophy with Psychology as one of the subjects", the Commission's wording may not be adopted.

For the post of the Lecturer in Kindergarten either a Philosophy graduate, who has studied Psychology as one of the subjects or a graduate in Psychology is necessary. To accept the wording suggested by the Public Service Commission will mean that a Mathematics or a Science graduate who studied Psychology as one of the subjects will be considered qualified. Though so far, no Indian University has a combination like this, it is possible some universities may have such a combination. For instance the Modern Greats at Oxford includes the study of History, Philosophy and Politics and the Psychology studied under Philosophy is very elementary. One University in England has a group which includes Natural Science and Philosophy. The Psychology studied under such combinations will be very elementary and the standard much lower than what is studied by those who take Philosophy. It is for this reason that Philosophy and Psychology are separately mentioned. It is therefore suggested that those who have taken a degree in Psychology should be preferred to those who have offered it as only one of the subjects.

2. It is also suggested that a proviso to rule 6(b) may be added to the effect that for appointment as Kindergarten Lecturer it will be sufficient if the mother tongue of the person is either Tamil or Telugu or if she has studied either of these languages as part of her University course.
